Flower,

A very wonderful friend whom I can and love a whole bunch. you've done so much for me
I don't know how to say thank you!
you were there with your love, ready to listen to all my troubles, what saved all these problems was just being able to put them all on shoulders, and you advising what to do for me.
you really someone special who's done so much for me and all that you care for. you just a humble person everyone love and also the great cheerleader about you and that you know what makes you special.
I love all the words I write with never tell you how much I love you and you know I love you and that you are my best friends whom I will always be there for. May the good you give to to best things in life.

your friend,

Going For The Gold . . .

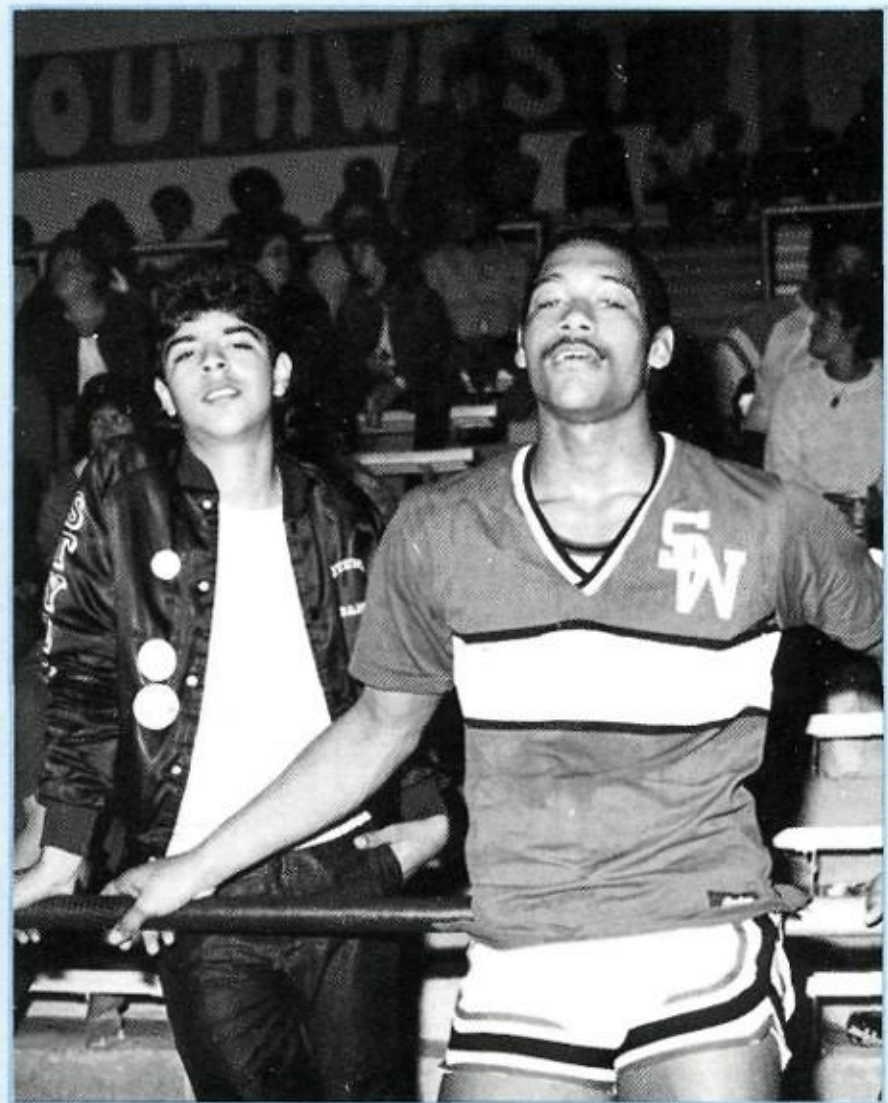

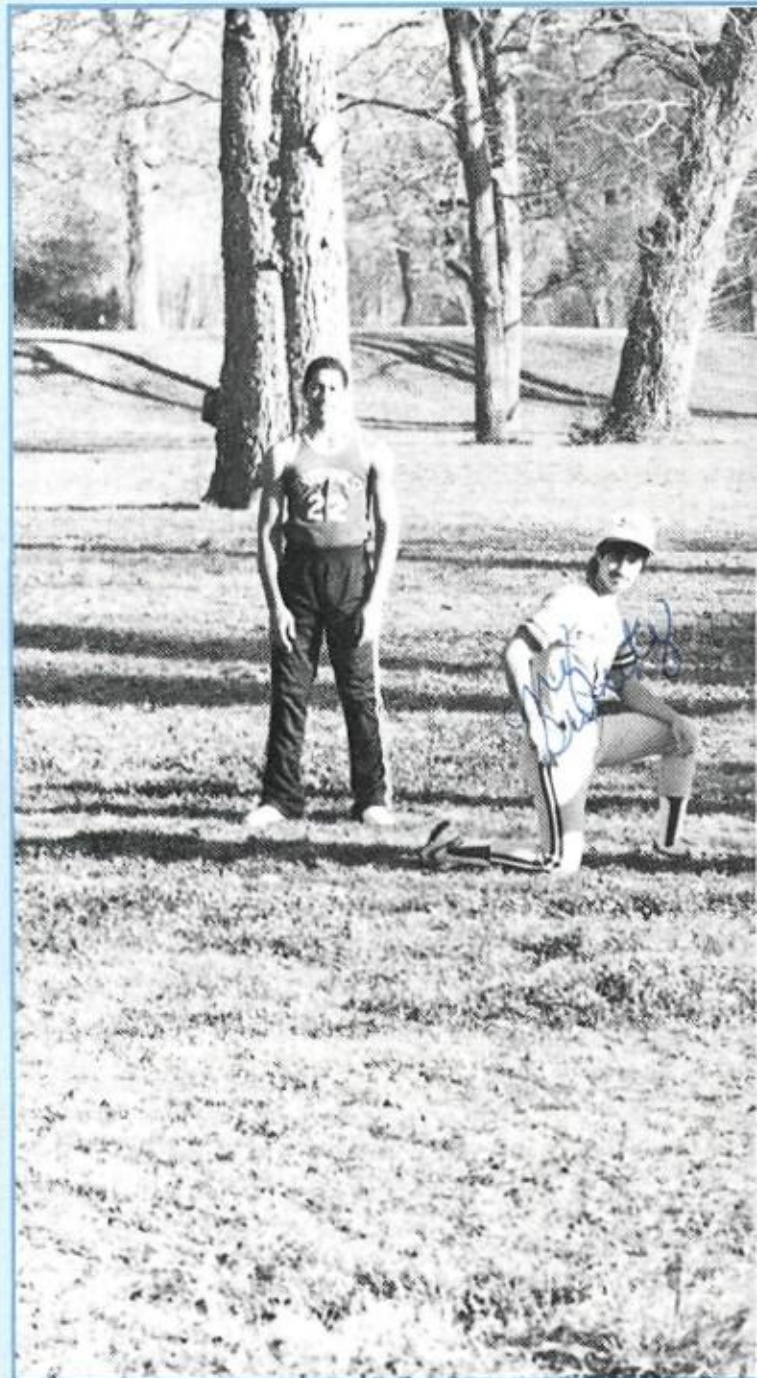

Going for the gold, the ultimate symbol of success and achievement, touches every aspect of our school career.

... In Competition

... In competition, it is the recurring struggle of an individual or a team to overcome the opposition in order to proclaim their superiority and to attain the highest pinnacle of success, the gold.

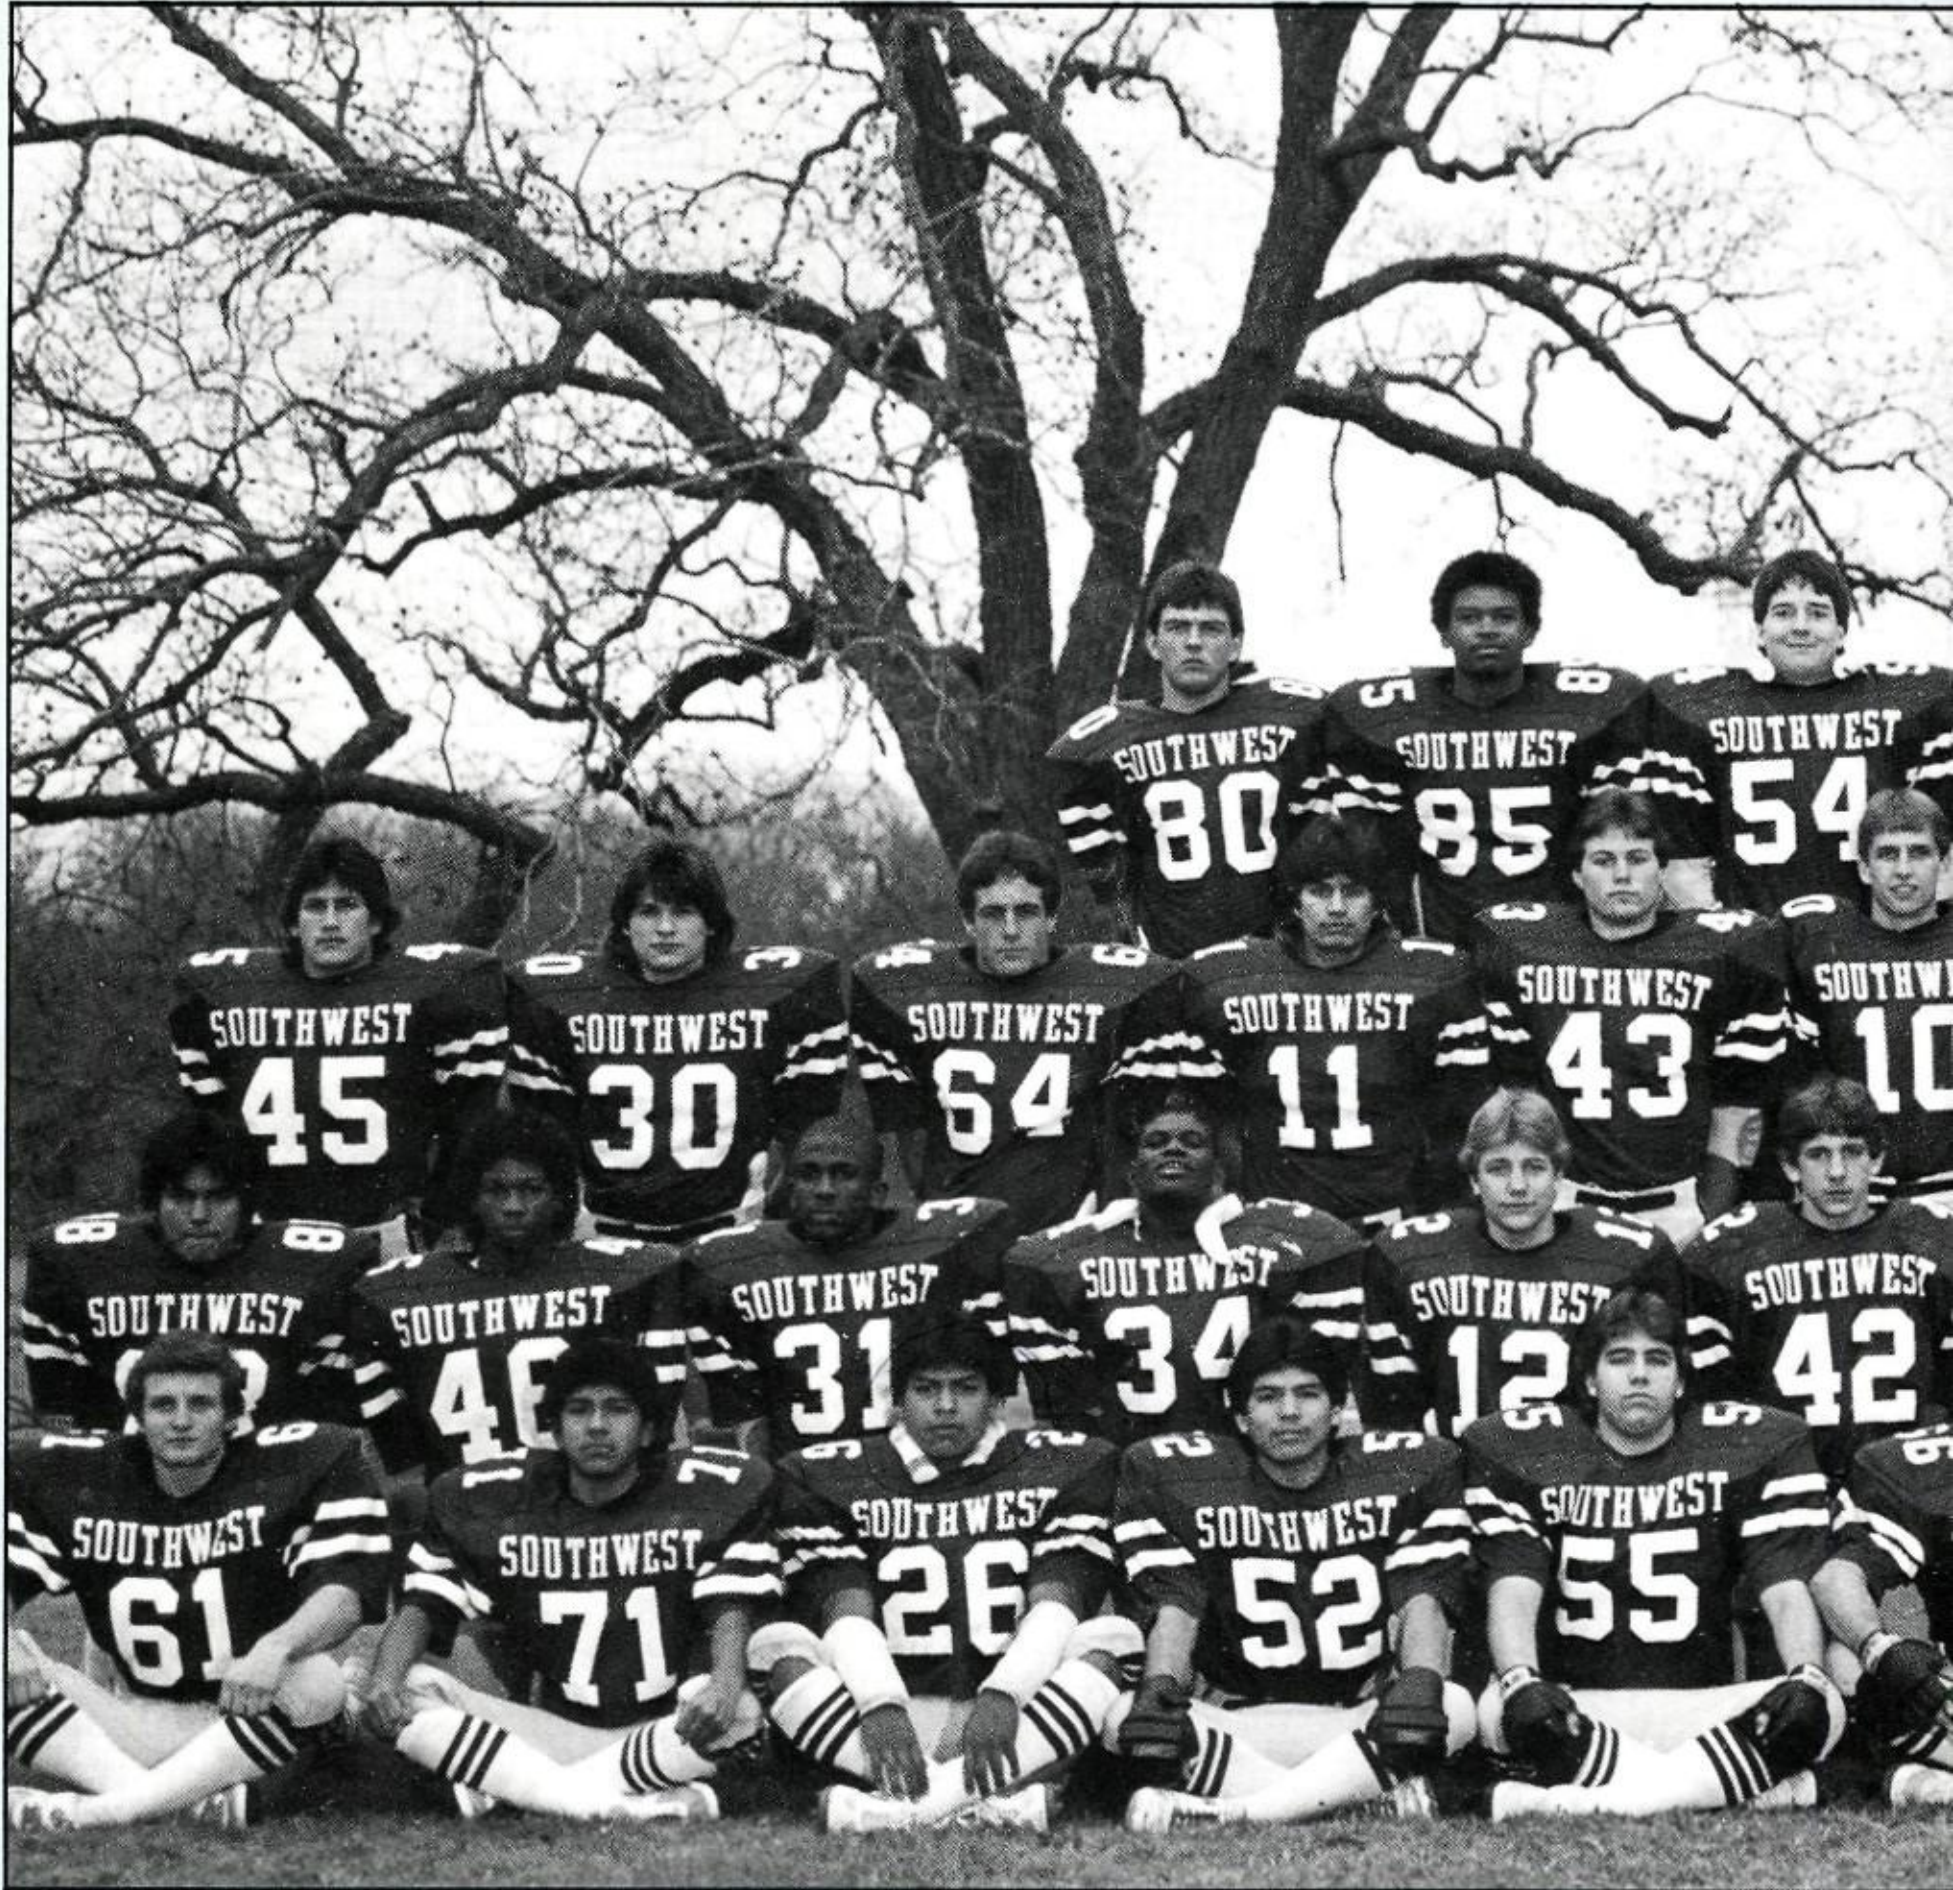

... In Today's World

... In today's world, it is the continual challenge to attain and maintain a level of excellence through active participation in society in order to grasp the gold.

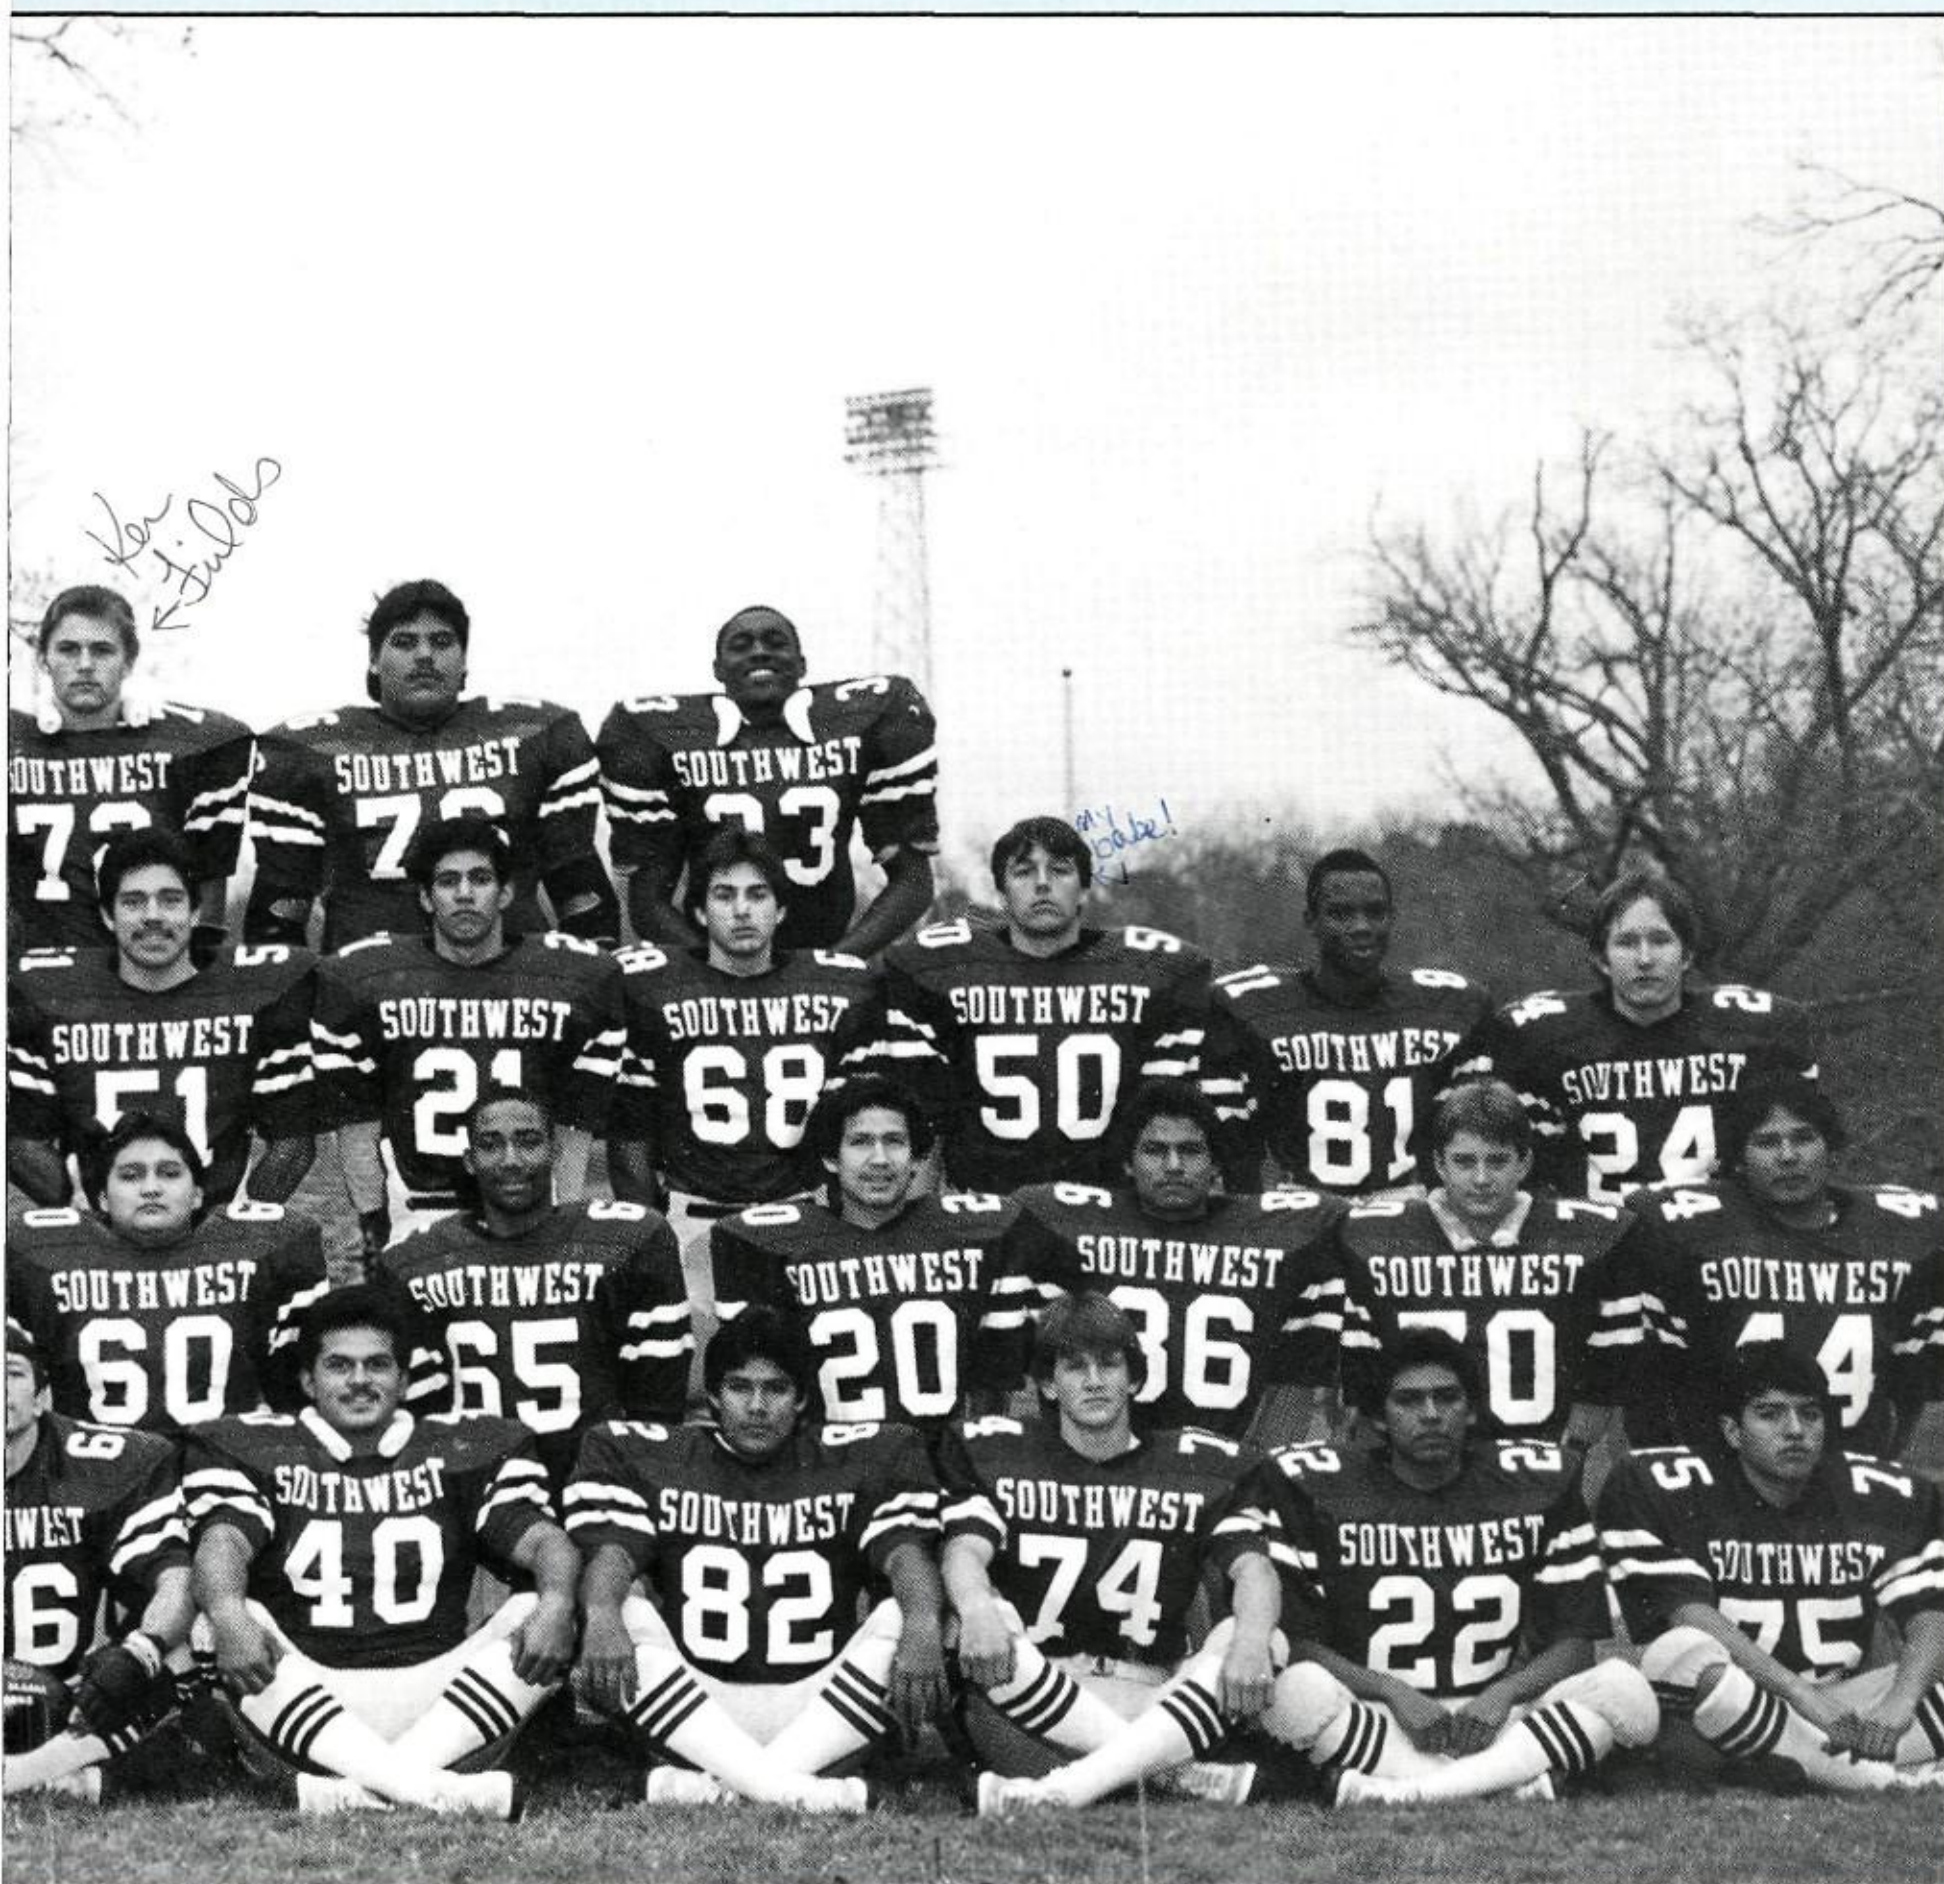

This book is dedicated to . . .

The 1985 Southwest

14-AAAA UNDEFEATED

Varsity Football Team

SEASON, BI-DISTRICT CHAMPS

... In Future Dreams

... In future dreams, it entails all our energy, in order to work for that which will not be realized during our time at Southwest, but will be within our grasp as a result of our efforts to achieve the gold.

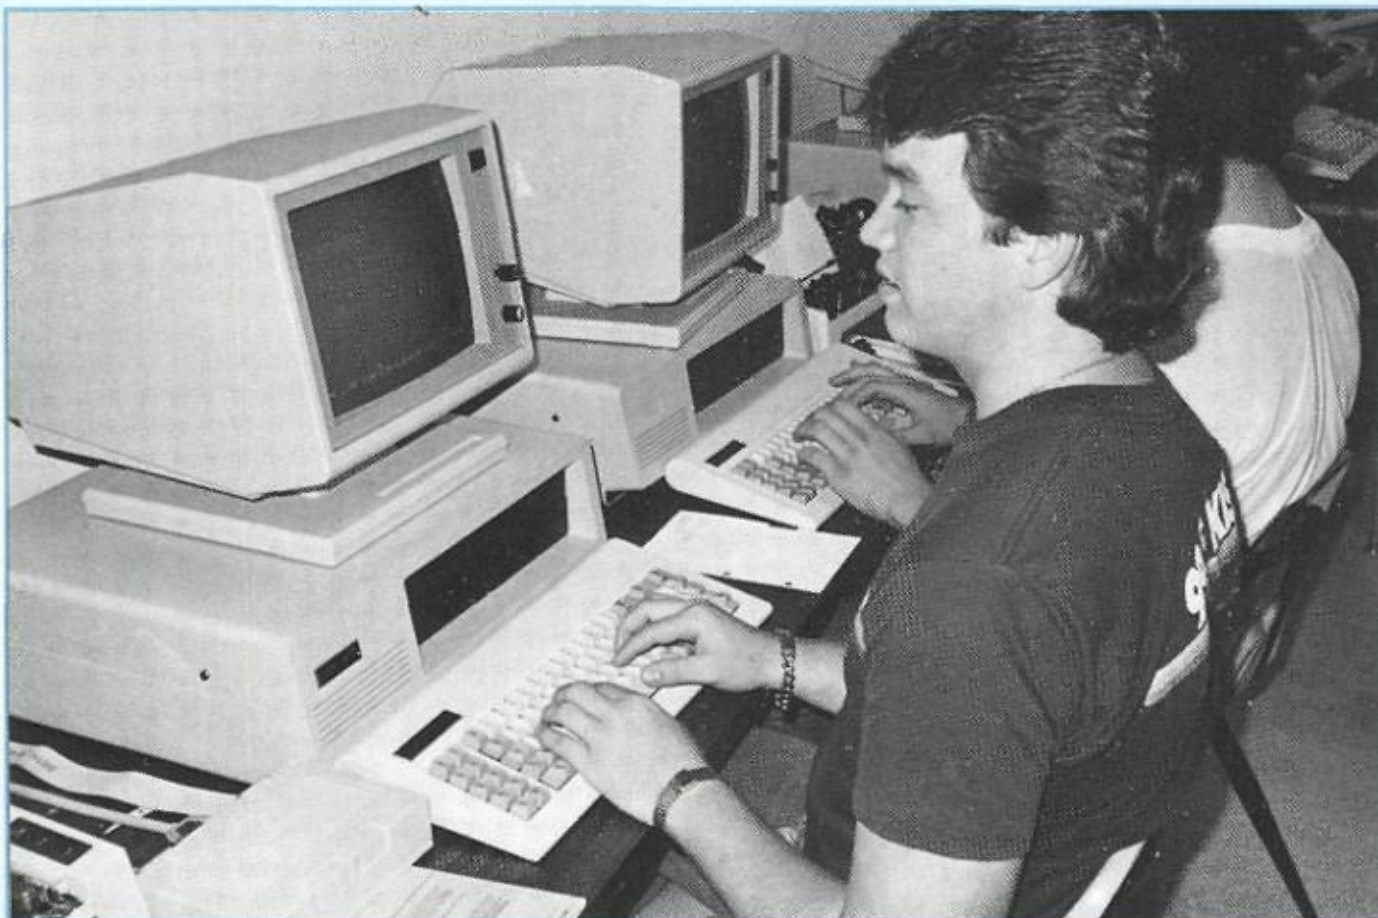

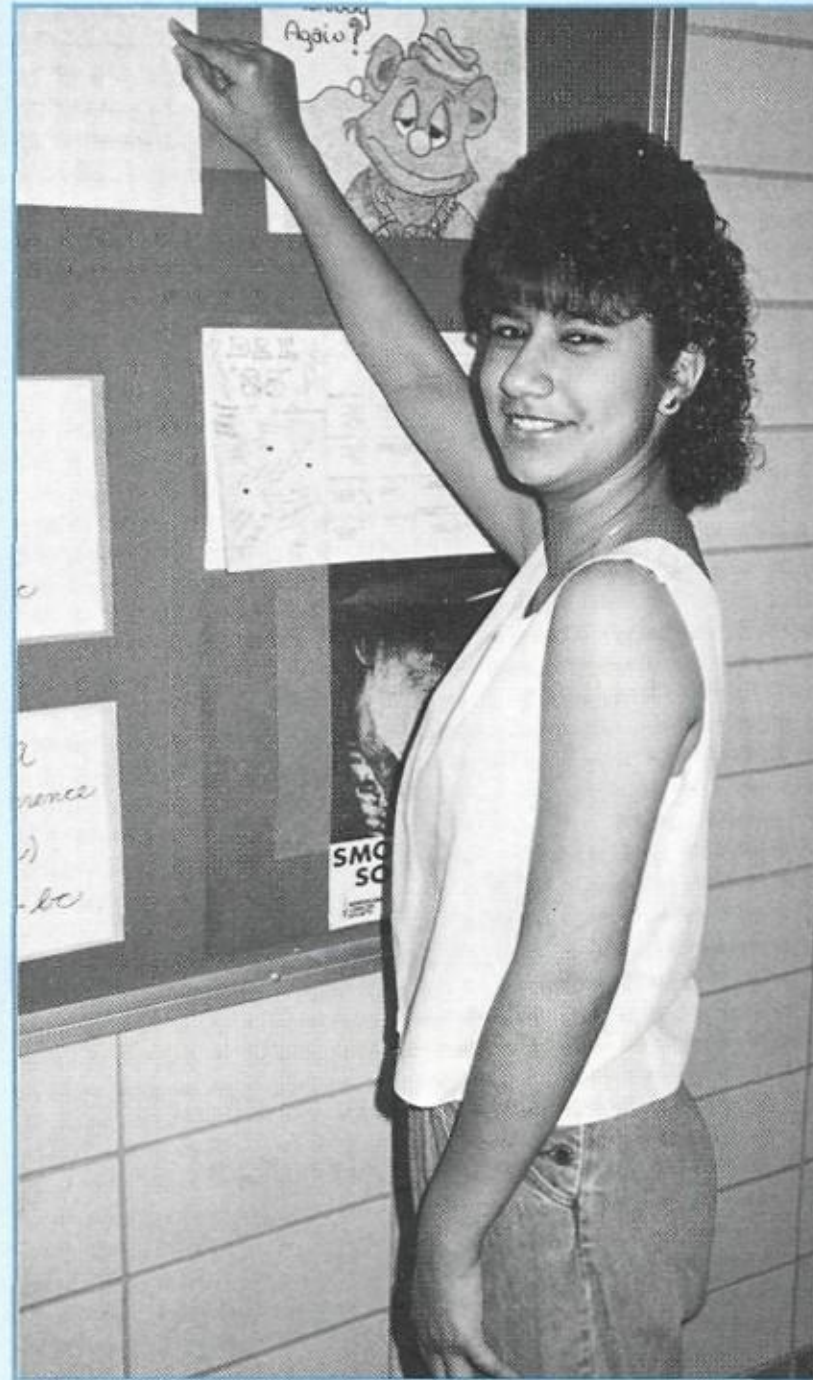

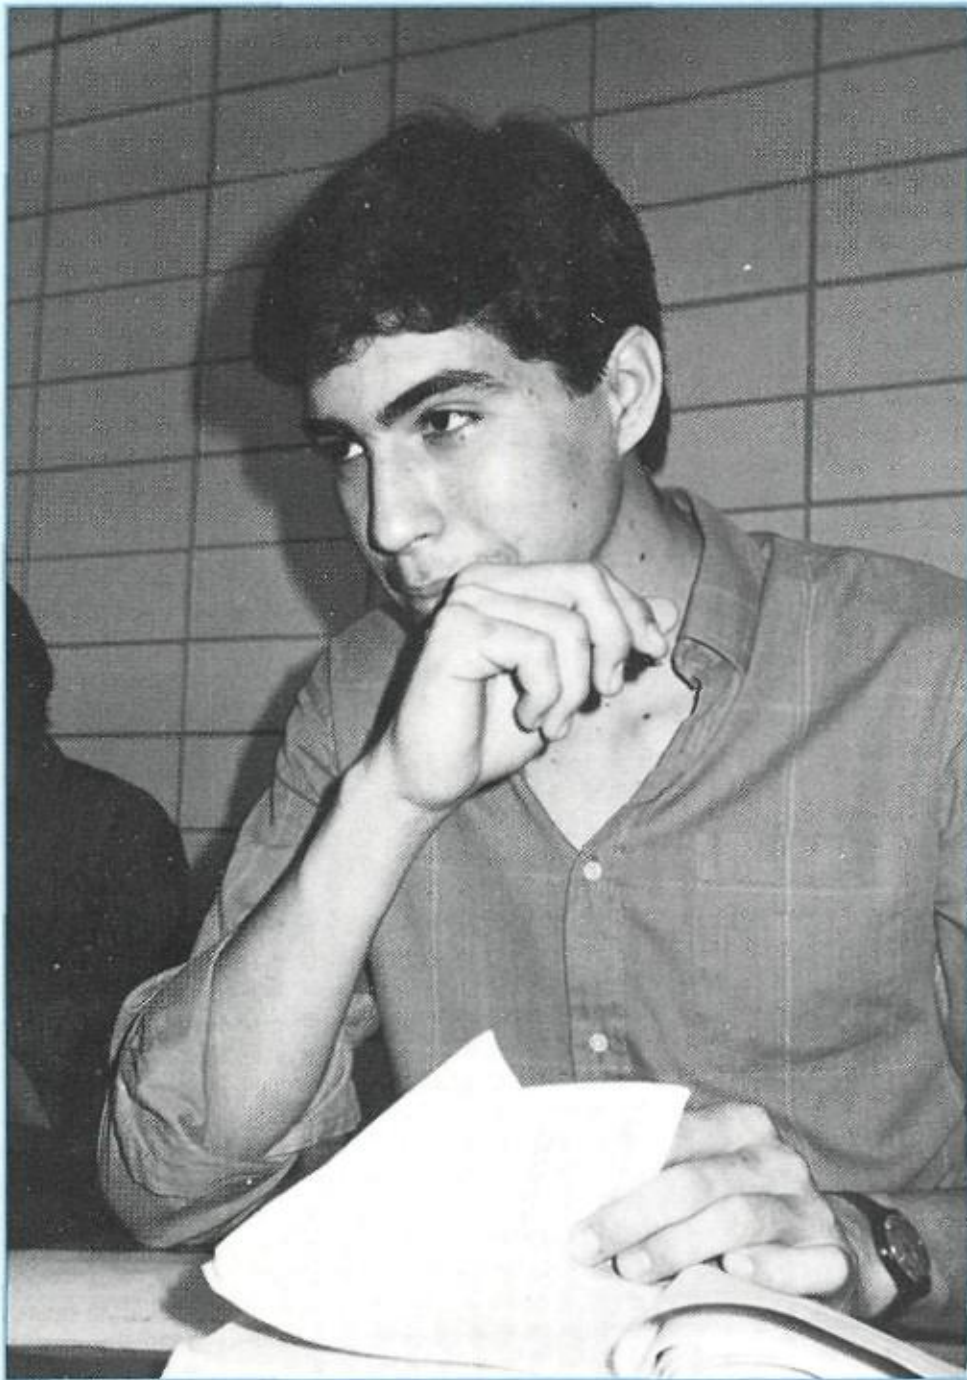

... In Unity

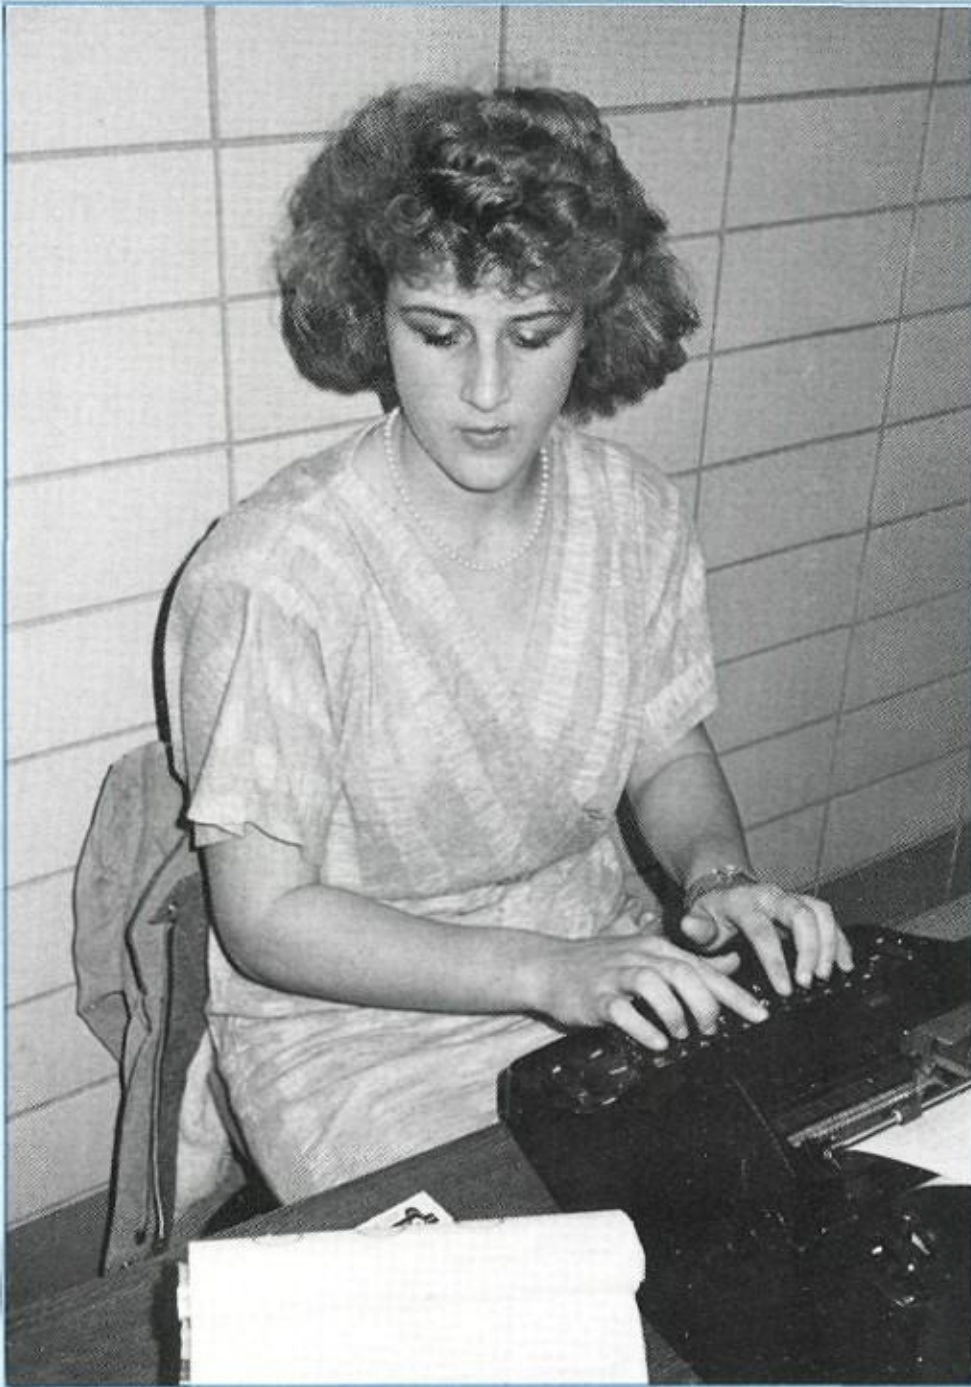

In unity, it assures success in all that we do, for that which is done together in a supreme effort works better than that which is done by only one.

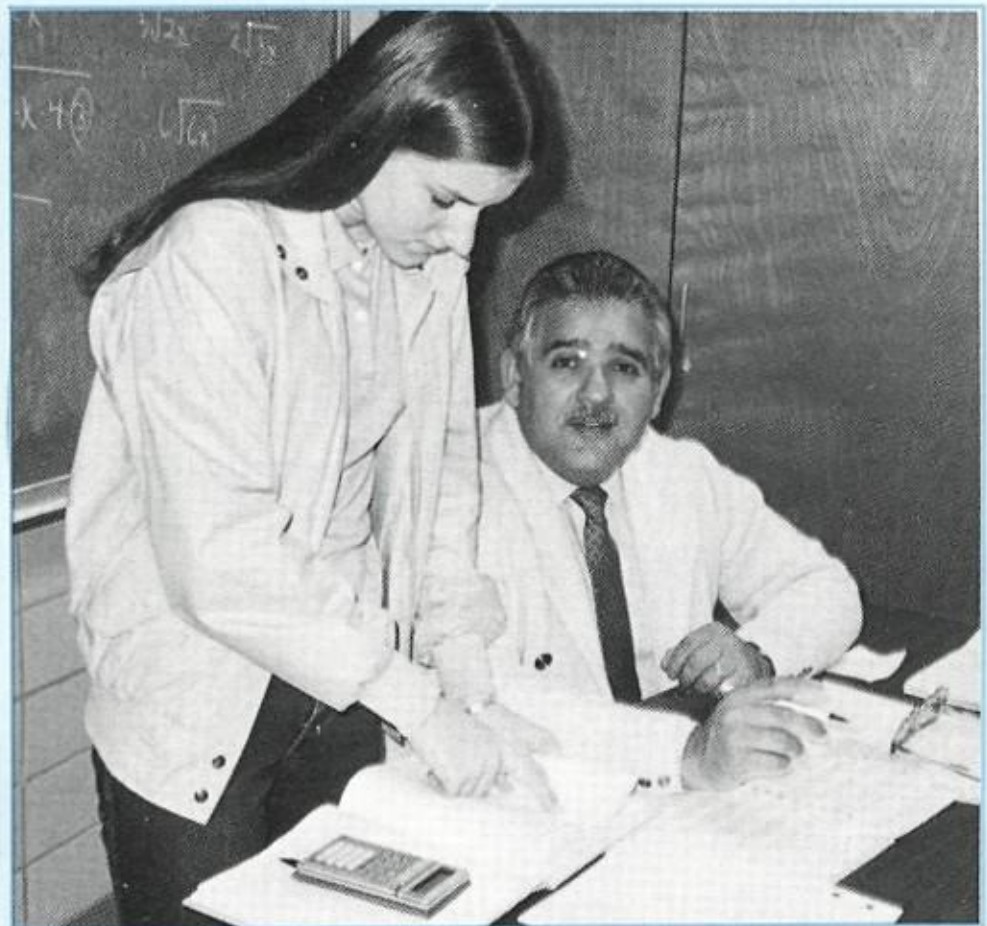

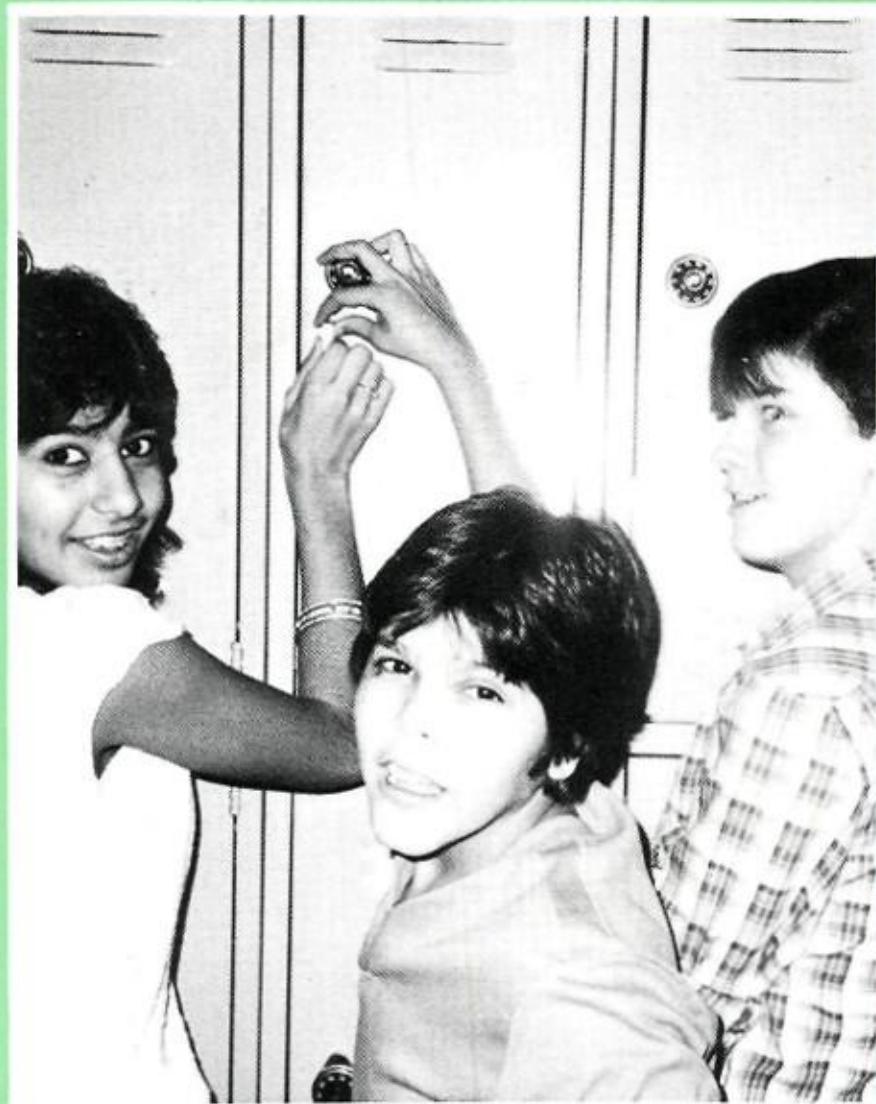

... In Education

In education, it enriches our lives, prepares us for success in the future, and helps us to achieve our place in the world through the continuous effort to attain the highest possible level of excellence we can.

Talent Show

SW Talent

Talent Cased

Friday, March 21st was the date of the annual SW talent show. Students and faculty members participated and one of the largest crowds in the history of the event attended.

Melissa Stout won first place with her dance routine. Pam Milam followed with a second place and Shannon Cowings was awarded third place.

"This event is just another example of faculty and students working together toward success," J. L. Todd, SW principal, said.

Powder Puff Brings Them Out

The senior team is only too glad to pose after stomping the junior team 35-0.

Coach Bobby Alvarado stares in disbelief as his team fumbles the ball.

The male cheerleaders did their part to fill out those uniforms.

Sonia Sanchez receives last minute instructions from her coach before going back into the game.

Senior Trip Rated Tops

Liz Rubio is all set for trip to Astroworld.

John Delune and Claudia Mejia make plans for arrival.

Mario Laque and Robert Aparacio sport new fashions in hopes of attracting members of the opposite sex.

Richie Ibarra dreams of cotton candy, hot dogs, corn dogs, etc.

Genie Alvarado and Dawn Kasper look exhausted, but happy, as they get ready for the long ride home.

George Santos and Andy Flores compare notes on "who did what" as they settle in for the return trip.

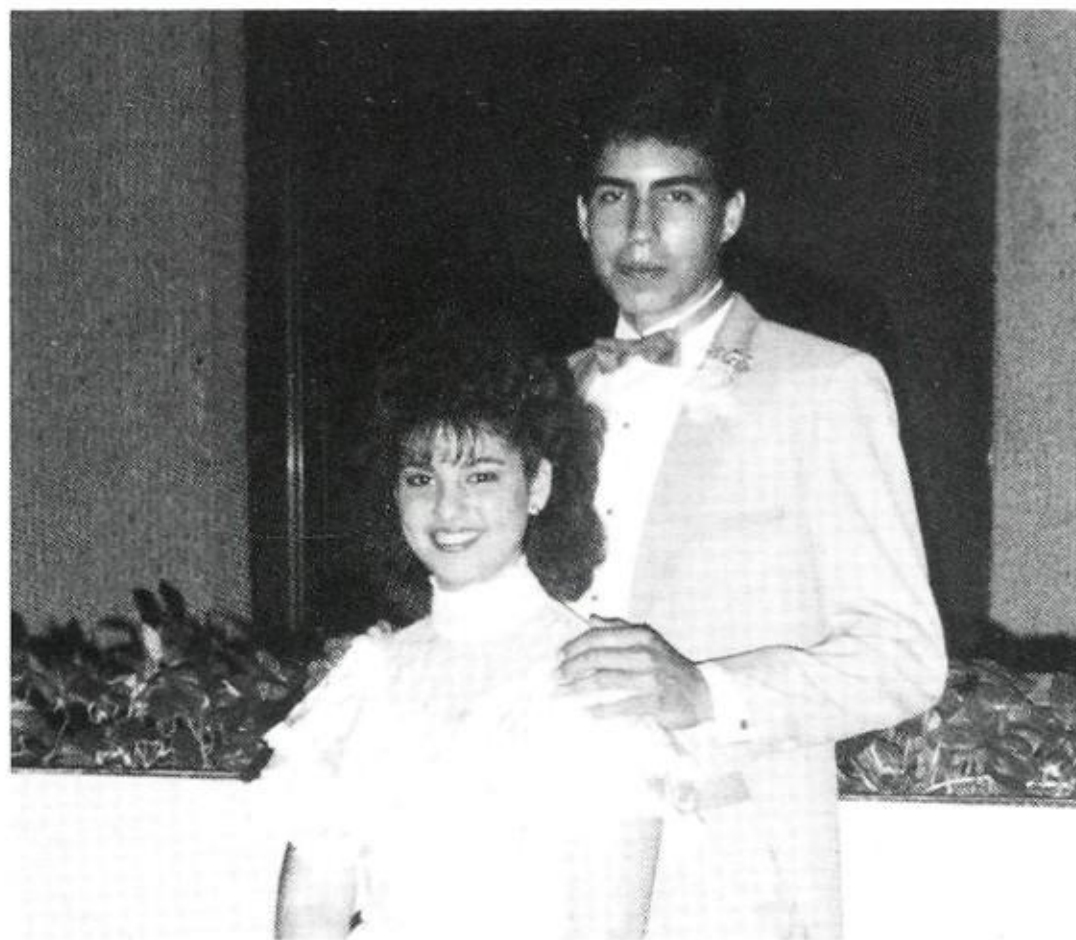

Seniors and sponsors line up for roll call as they board the bus for the last time.

"Night In Heaven"—Night To Remember

April 12, 1986 is a date that will live for a lifetime in the memories of most SW juniors and seniors. The theme of this year's prom was "A Night In Heaven" and was held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel.

The decorations were silver and blue and the central theme was carried out throughout the grand ballroom. Students and their dates along with many faculty members were dressed up in all their finery. The theme "A Night In Heaven" was well chosen and most agreed that it was an evening to be relived in memory for years to come.

James Rodriguez, Patty Ruiz, and Laura Garcia relax for a moment before hitting the dance floor again.

Grace Mendoza and date make a stunning couple.

Anna Marie Rendon and Albert Guerra getting ready to take off in their "rented" Mercedes.

Ken Fields and Sonia Sanchez make their own night in heaven on the dance floor.

John Martinez and Priscilla Uriegas pose before leaving home for the prom.

Kai Umac has lost her date . . . again.

Seniors Prepare For Goodbyes

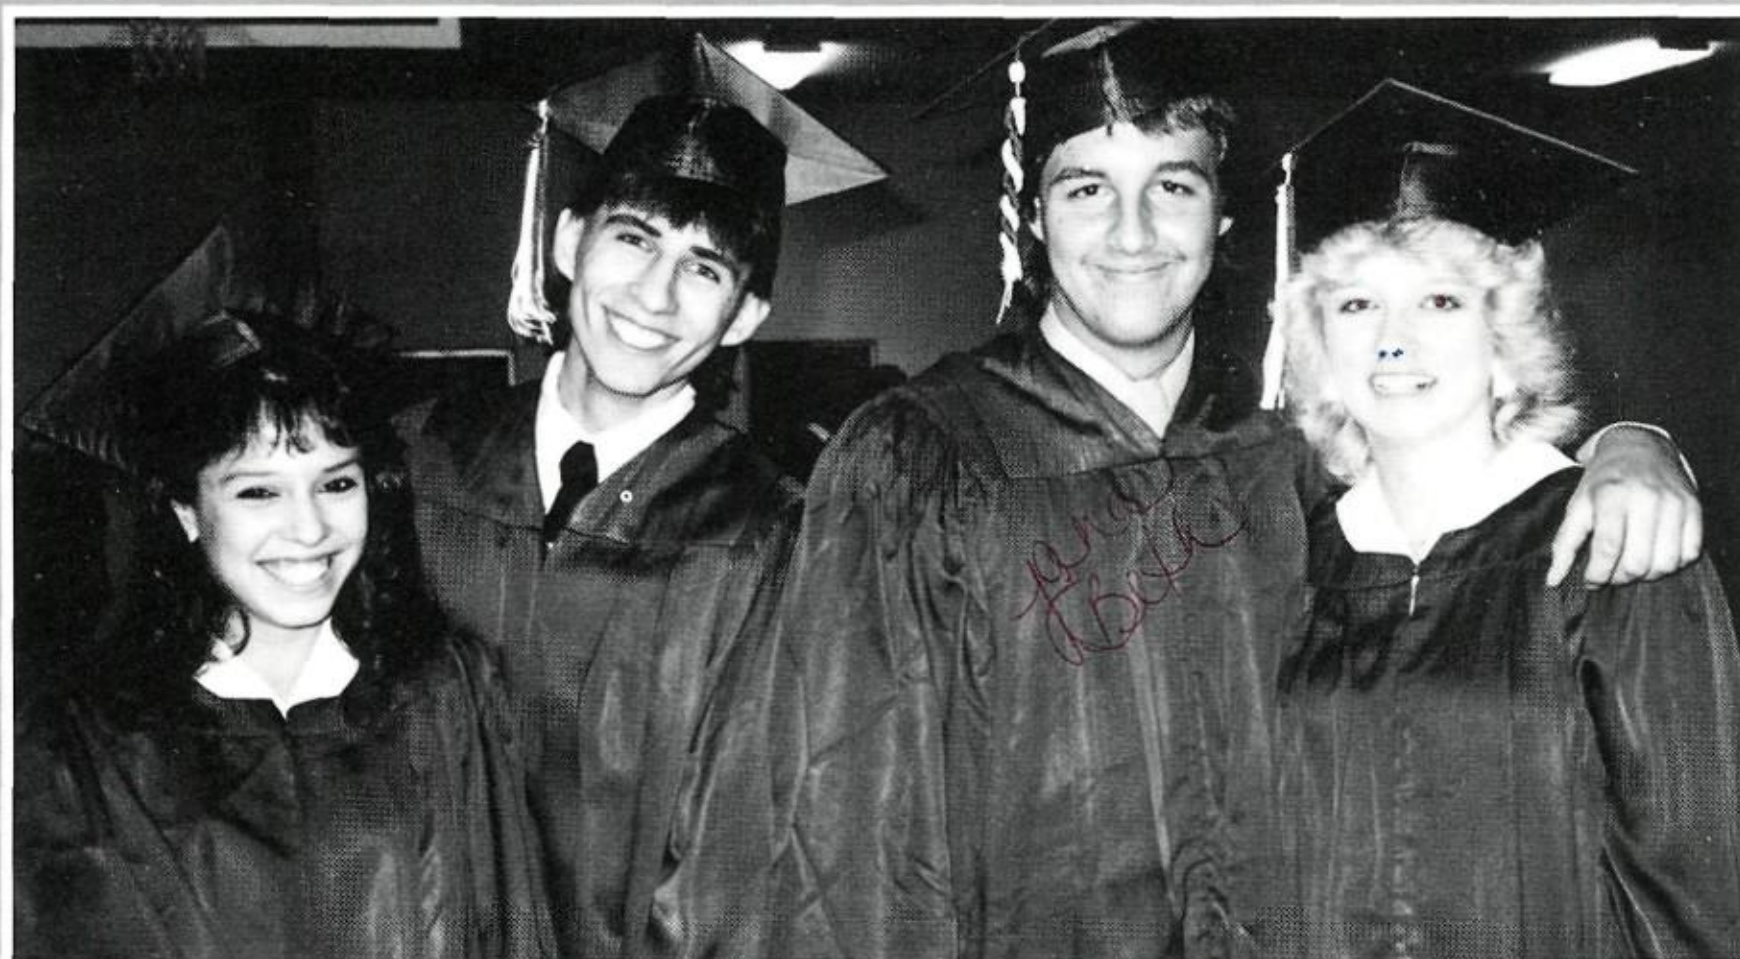

It was hard to realize that we were seniors; but as we measured for our caps and gowns, turned in diploma cards, nominated homecoming queens, turned in college applications, and prepared for the senior prom, it was impossible to deny the fact that soon the class of 1986 would be graduating.

As seniors we knew nearly everything about Southwest. We knew approximately where we'd sit when the teachers arranged us in alphabetical order and whom we'd sit by. We also knew who we'd move by if the teacher gave us a chance. We had established friendships in our 11+ years of schooling, and this last year was a time to appreciate all the friends we had made. We caught "senioritis" together and had as much fun as possible because we knew graduation might mean the end of our time together as we would go our separate ways.

Our senior year was a year of lasts: our last football game, our long awaited senior prom, our last days together as a class. It was a year full of endings, but these endings had a purpose. We were ready to move on to new places. Despite all of the "lasts," the class of 1986 wasn't ending something but rather beginning a bright new future.

Seniors Take Final Walk

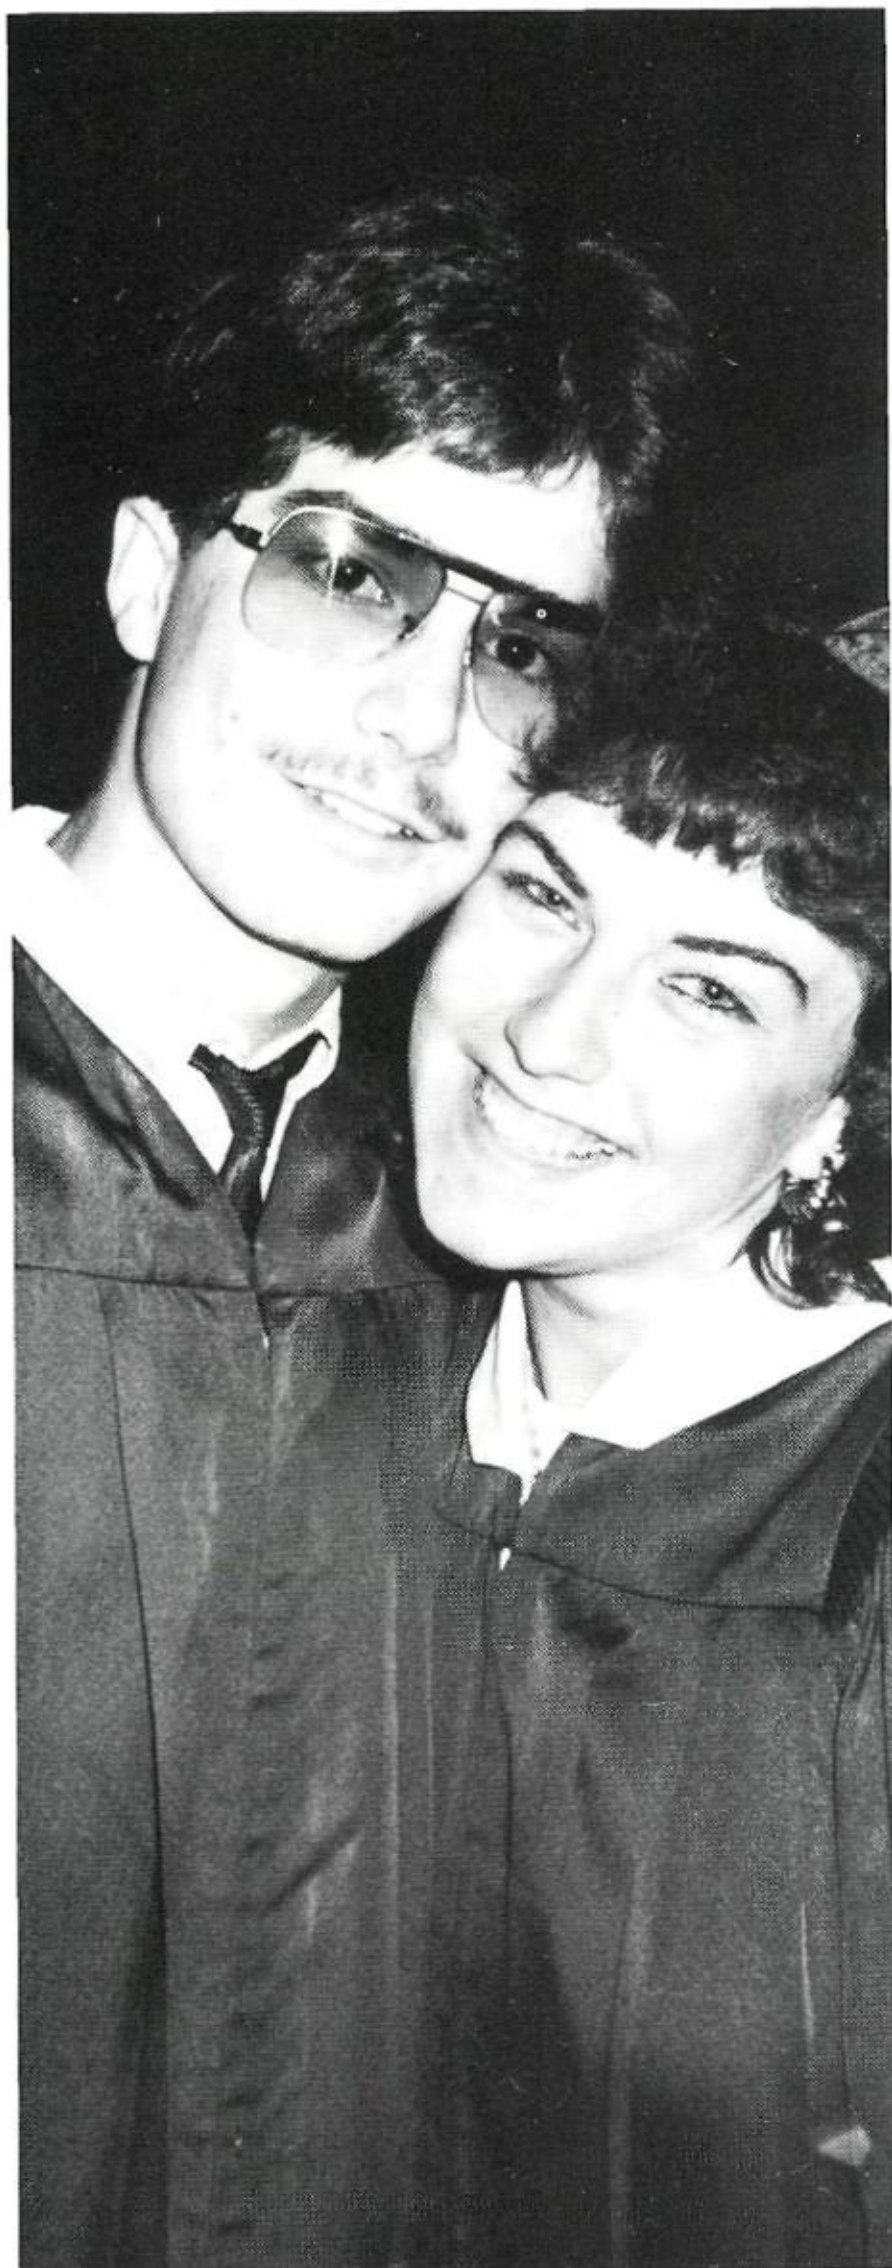

Graduation Night

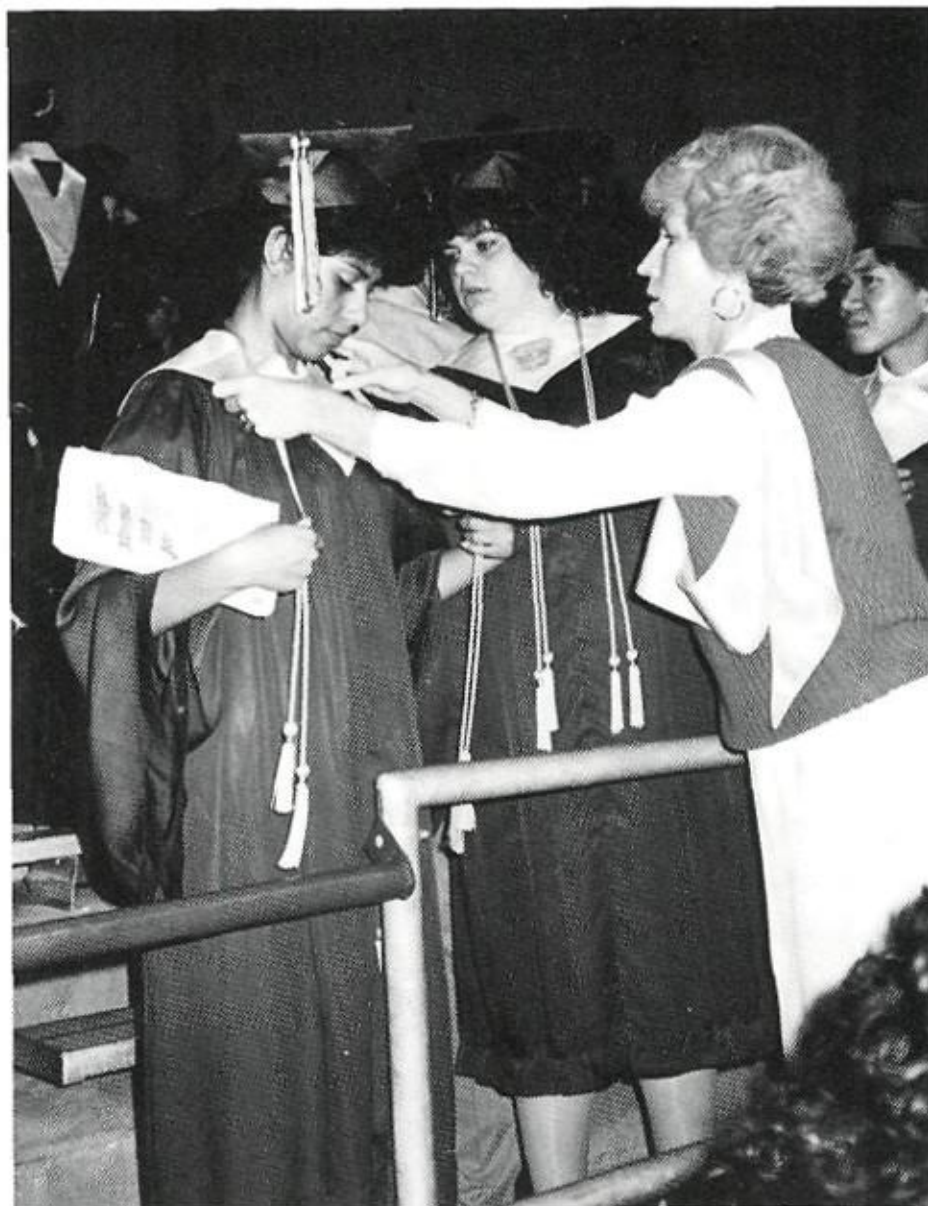

May 30, 1986 was a night of mixed emotions for many SW students and their family members. This was the long awaited night . . . graduation. As the high school band started the playing of the "processional" many were seen brushing away tears. However, the tears were soon replaced with smiles as the evening progressed.

As one senior said, "It's not the end, it's only the beginning."

Jeff Bushong and Lisa Aelvoet get ready to move to the stage area.

Mrs. Archer makes some last minute adjustments to senior gowns.

Long time senior sponsor, Mrs. Dye, is always ready to lend a helping hand.

Student/Faculty Volleyball

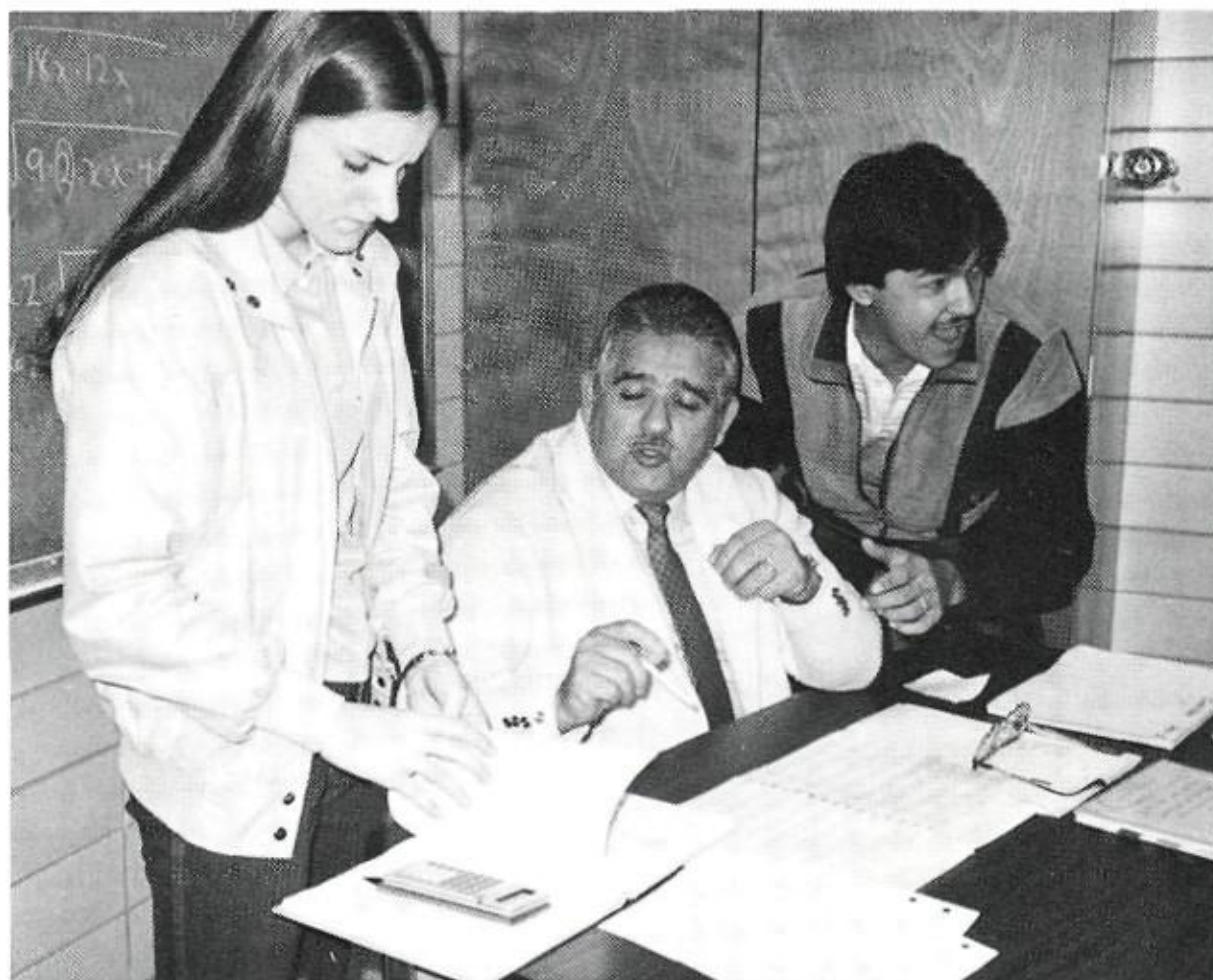

The SW faculty took on the student body in volleyball, April 11th. The primary purpose of the game, which was sponsored by PTSA, was to raise money for scholarships. The faculty won 2-1.

The entire community rallied behind this popular activity in order to help deserving SW students.

Classes

Throughout our school career, our class has come to mean many things to each of us. It is representative of our place in the hierarchy of the school and our nearness to graduation, which is the ultimate goal of our high school years. It is a symbol of our pride in our school, ourselves, and each other.

The junior class was led by Juan Vega as President and Nilsa Rivera as Vice-President. The entire class was probably the busiest class in the school. They had fund raisers throughout the year and raised funds to help pay for the Junior/Senior Prom.

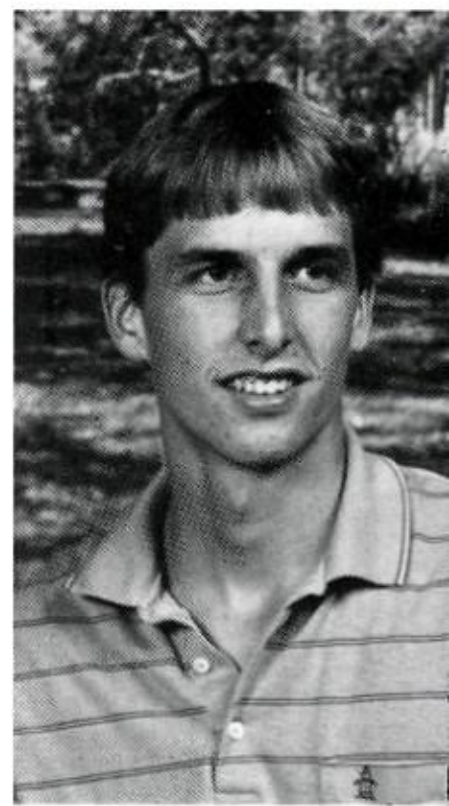

Cynthia Alvarado served as treasurer for the class while Debra Jacobs was the class secretary. These two individuals were responsible for handling the correspondence and funds for their class.

Freshmen start long hard four years.

The beginning of school this year found one of the largest freshmen classes in recent memory beginning their education at SW High School.

The students were faced with a changing educational environment, largely due to Housebill 72. These students knew that theirs was not to be an easy task. The prospect of completing a high school education was one that "baffled the mind" according to more than one SW freshman.

As the year wore on these "first year citizens" of SW accepted their role and buckled down to the business at hand—getting the best education possible.

Faculty/Administration

School Board Sets Policy

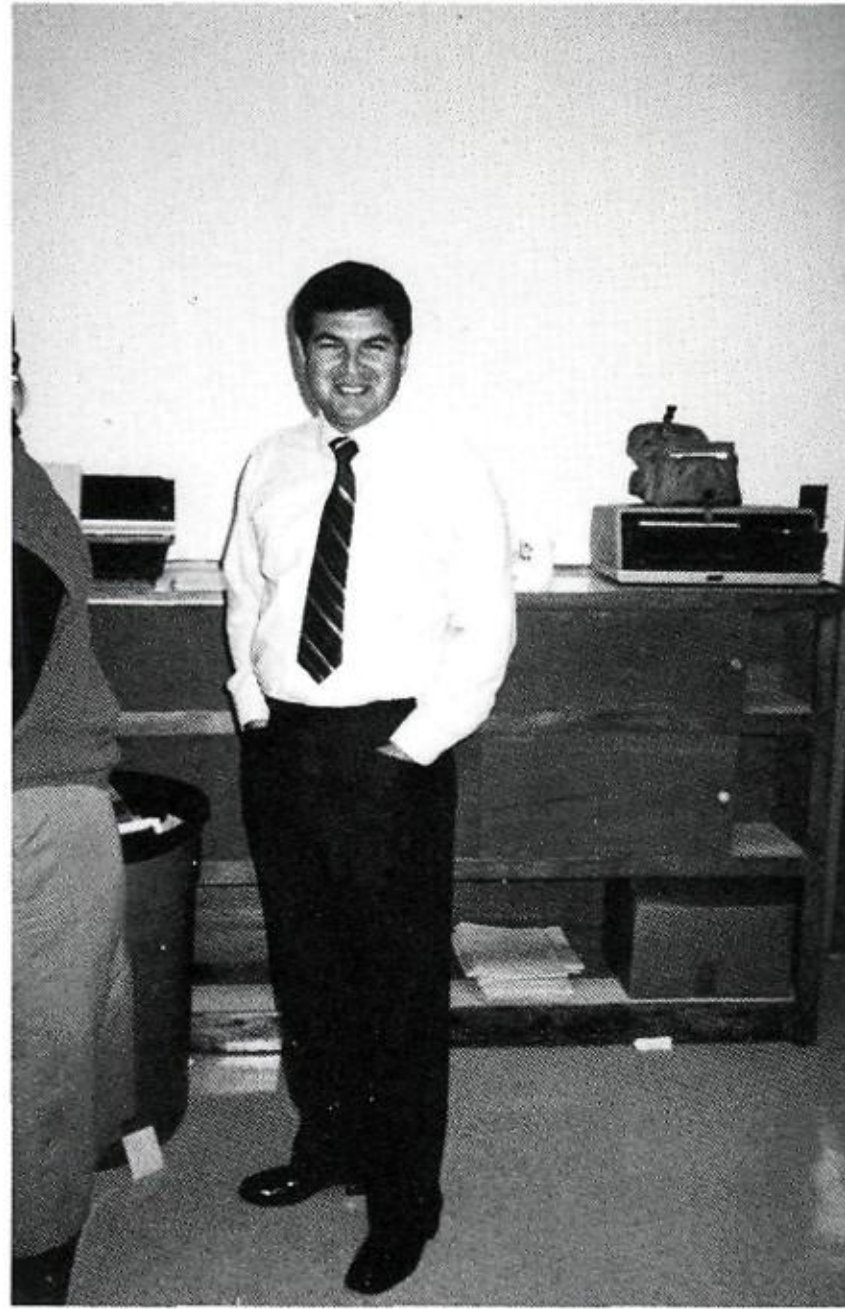

The Southwest ISD School Board is composed of individuals believing in community involvement in the school. Elected from the populace at large, the board members bring to the district ideas from the community and take back ideas from the school. This interchange of ideas leads to understanding and cooperation between the two.

Dr. Ronald Caloss began his first year as Superintendent of the district. Members: Mr. Walter Geiger, president, Mr. Mike C. Frazier, vice president, Mr. Juan Alvarado, secretary, Mrs. Susan Bordano, asst. secretary, Mr. Keith Byrom, member, Mrs. Carolyn Fields, member, and Mr. Joe Escobar, member.

Administration

Mr. J. L. Todd—Principal

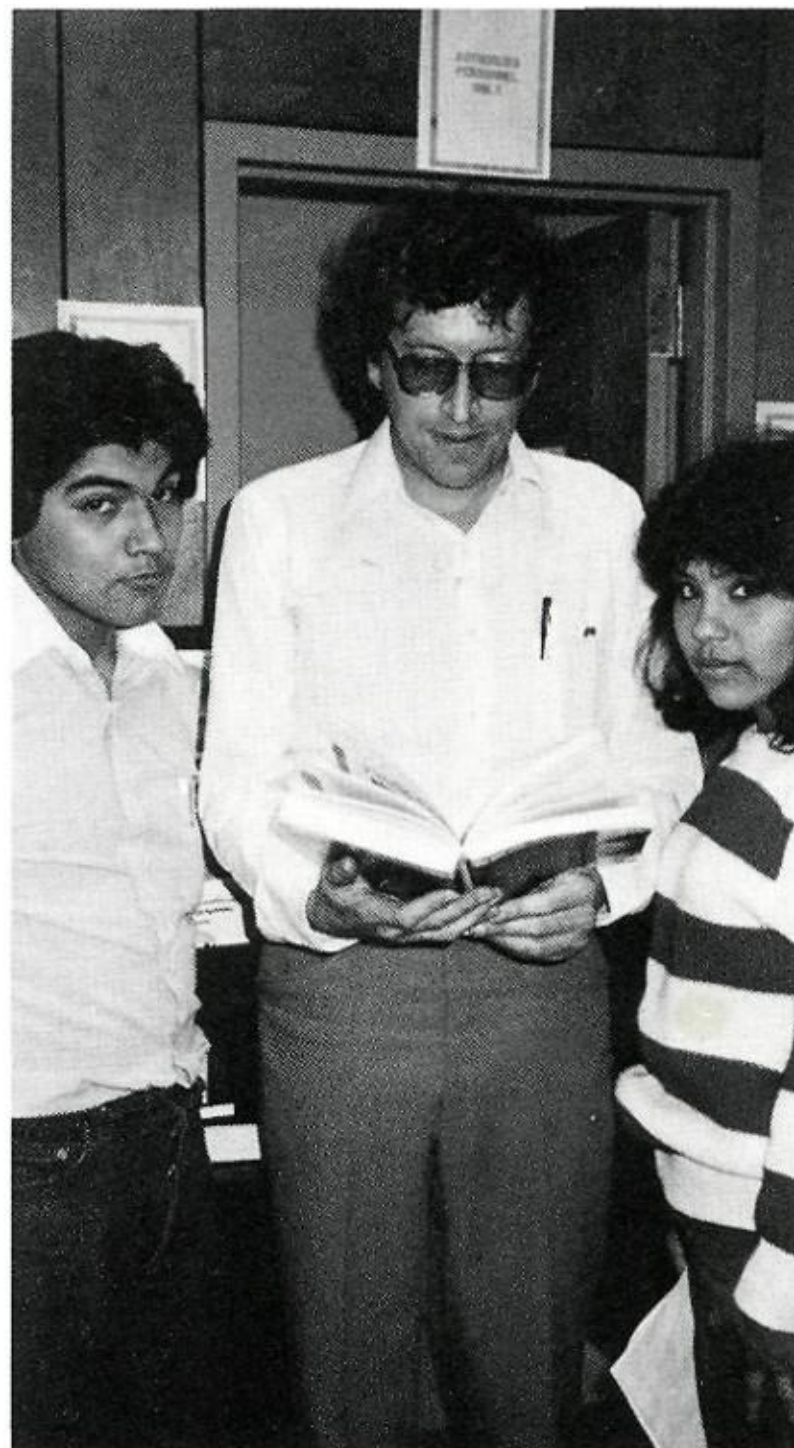

Mr. Homer Rodriguez—Vice Principal

Mrs. Margie Willems—Vice Principal

Mr. Fritz Baker—Vice Principal

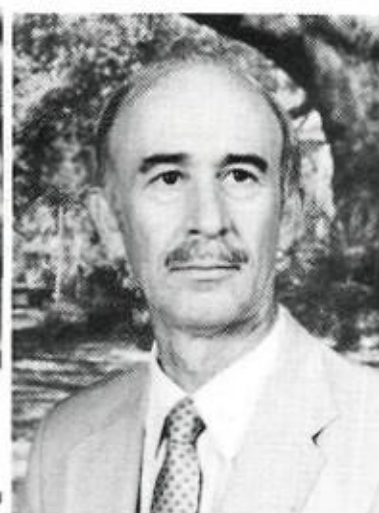

Mrs. Archer and Mr. Al Noonan, SW counselors could always be counted on to lend students a helping hand in whatever area needed.

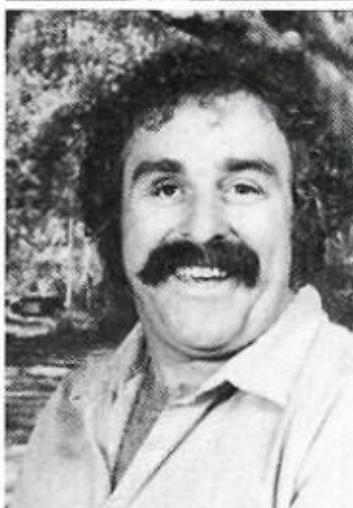

Mrs. Marlyn Nichols, attendance clerk, Mrs. Betty Ritchey, receptionist, Mrs. Yolanda Alderson, general school secretary, Mrs. Jean Hasler, computer operator, and Mrs. Rene Zuercher, principal's secretary all helped to round the office out as a well run machine.

"At Southwest we have fun, yet keep in perspective why we're here." In that sentence, expressed by SW principal J. L. Todd, Southwest High School is summed up well. But what makes SW run so smoothly? Well, a big share of it is due to our faculty.

SW librarians; Mrs. Judy Gallin and Mrs. Betty Jackson can always be counted on to give a helping hand to students and faculty members alike. Mrs. Verda Mae Pue has worked with the library program at SW for a number of years and is a familiar sight and always seems to have time to help out with students' special needs.

Valedictorian

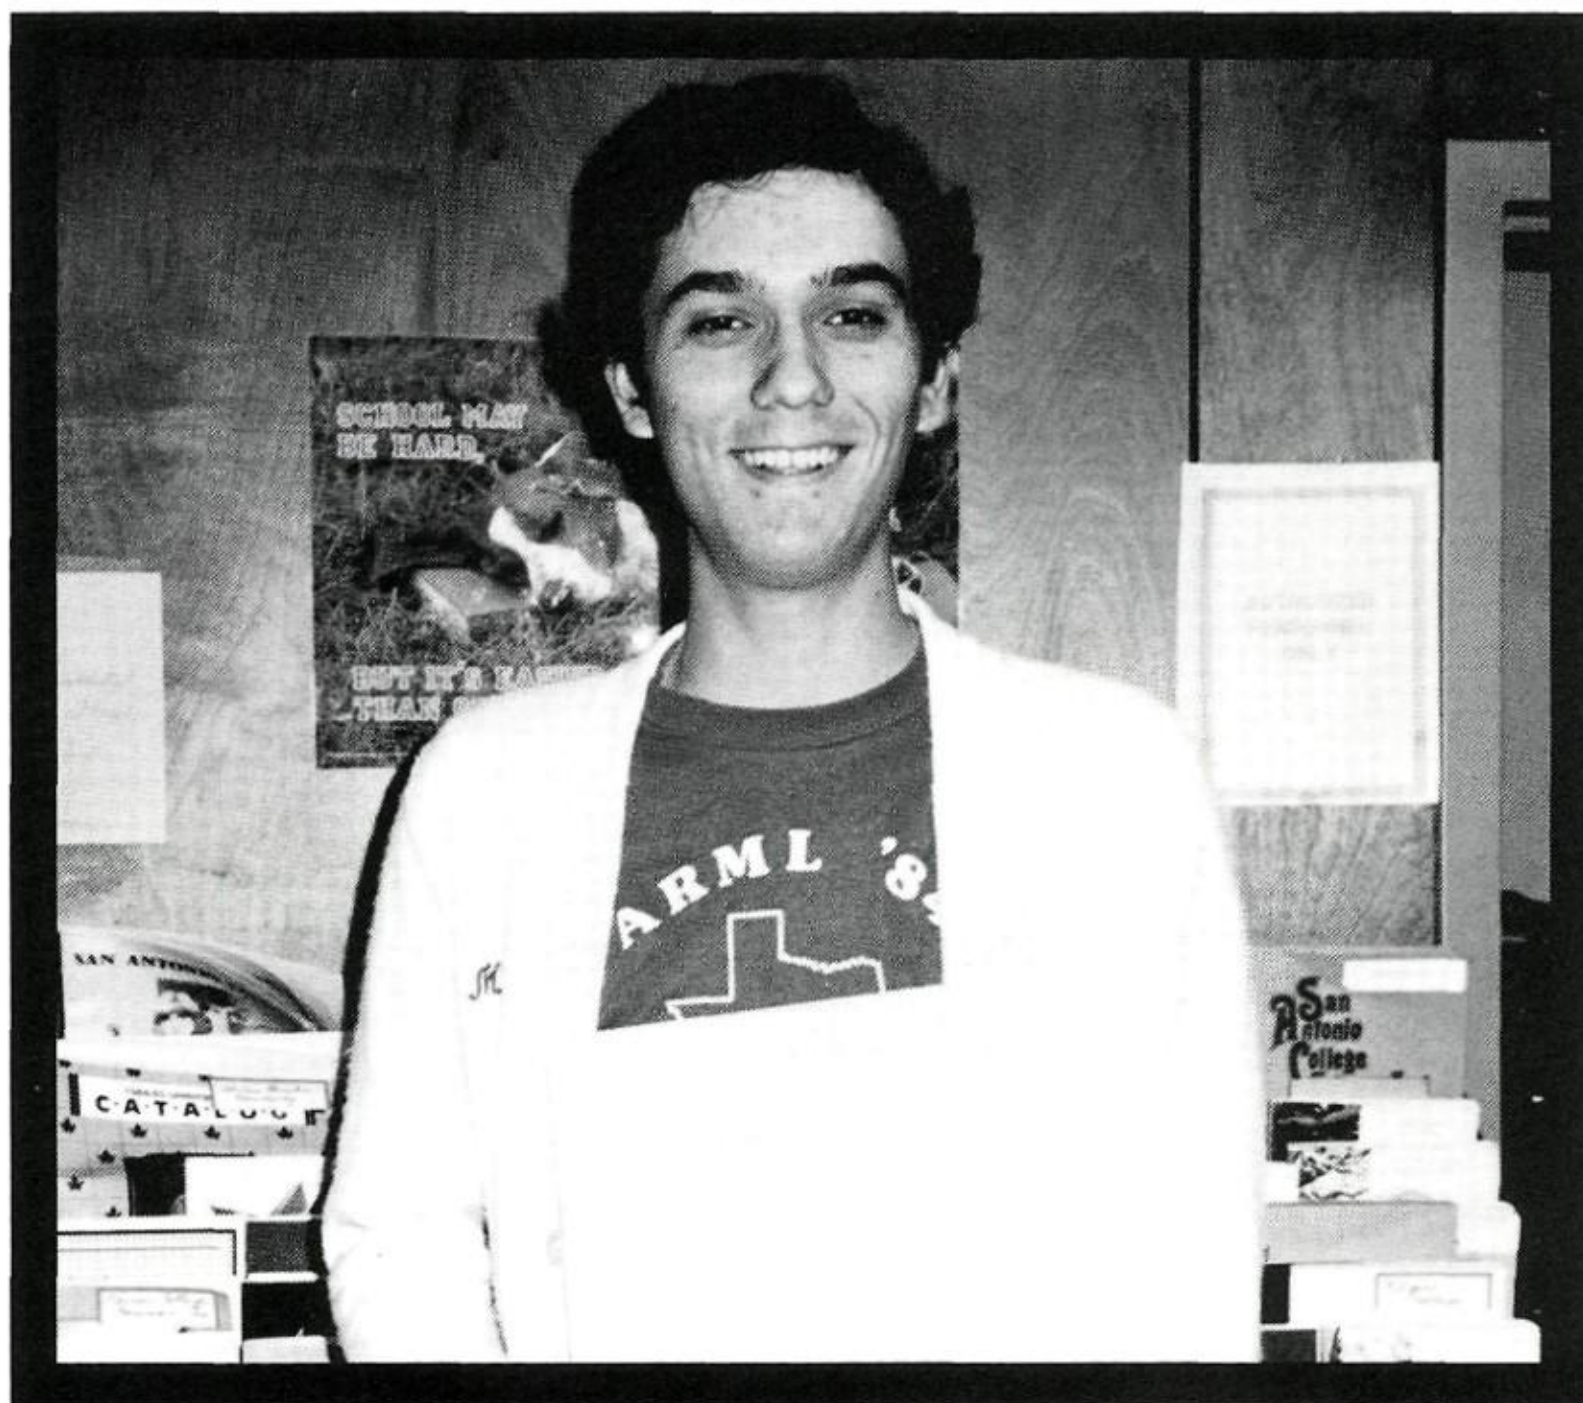

"Kay" In

Kwang-il In is the valedictorian of her class of 235 students. Seven years ago the personable, articulate 18 year old could not speak more than a few words of English when she entered this country from South Korea.

She plans a career as a concert pianist, but, she says, a career teaching music or math also is possible. She plans to major in music and math at Trinity University.

Salutatorian

Mike Aguilar . . .

Mike Aguilar followed close behind Kay in grade point average as salutatorian of the class of 86. Mike plans on attending Princeton University on a scholarship. He was extremely active in the National Honor Society and the Math Team. Mike placed first in class 4-A competition for the entire state in UIL competition. He also brought honor to himself and the school as a National Merit finalist.

Top SW Seniors Recognized

Fifteen SW seniors had their name added to the school's permanent roll in 1986. The seniors having their names added to the roll were: Michael Aguilar, Robert Aparicio, Carmen Benavidez, Cynthia Cano, Richard Davis, Brian Frederick, Nancy Hernandez, Jeri Horyak, Kwang-il In, Carol July, Melinda Killina, Carol Nentwich, Frances Overman, Lucinda Tapp, and Hung Tran.

In order to become a member of this impressive group, each student must maintain a grade of at least 90 for all four years of high school.

Honor roll members Carol July and Brian Frederick relax before reporting to their seniors honors English class.

Jeri Hornyak and Richard Davis seem proud after hearing their names called as members of the honor roll.

Michael Aguilar and Kwang-il In display the permanent honor roll.

Nancy Hernandez and Frances Overman find their names on the permanent honor roll.

Robert Aparicio, Cynthia Cano, and Cindy Tapp are all smiles as their names are called for the honor roll.

Melidna Killina, Carol Nentwich, and Hung Tran seemed pleased as their names are announced to the honor roll.

Quality, A Cut Above The Rest

Striving to become number one! Hoping to reach a goal! Catching the fever! Trying to perfect a skill! Activities were a large part of the character of the school. Students involved in activities undertook the task of juggling practices and meetings into school, jobs, and free time. Long hours of hard work put into all of the activities whether it was dribbling a basketball down the court or learning a new language.

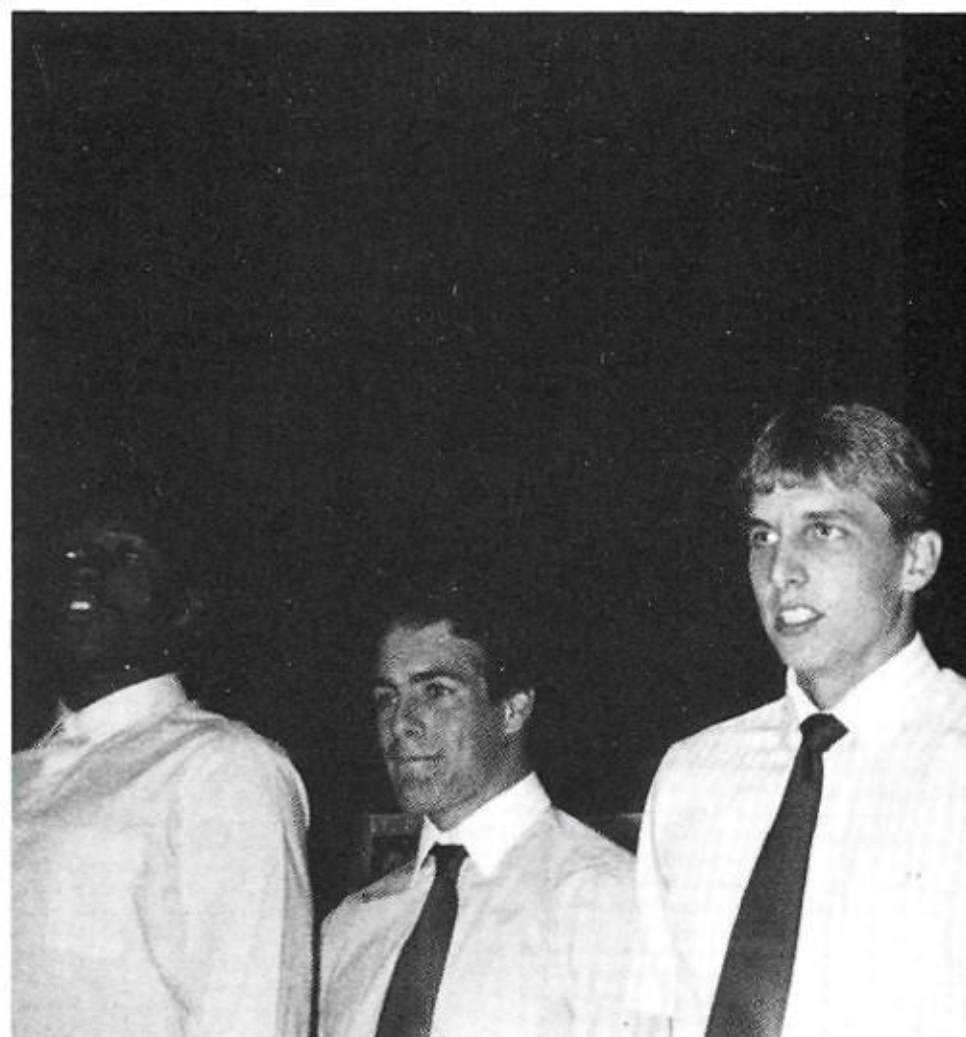

Team work was the most important ingredient in any activity. Every member made up a piece of a whole that when put together created memories for the entire school. The losses and victories were experienced by everyone.

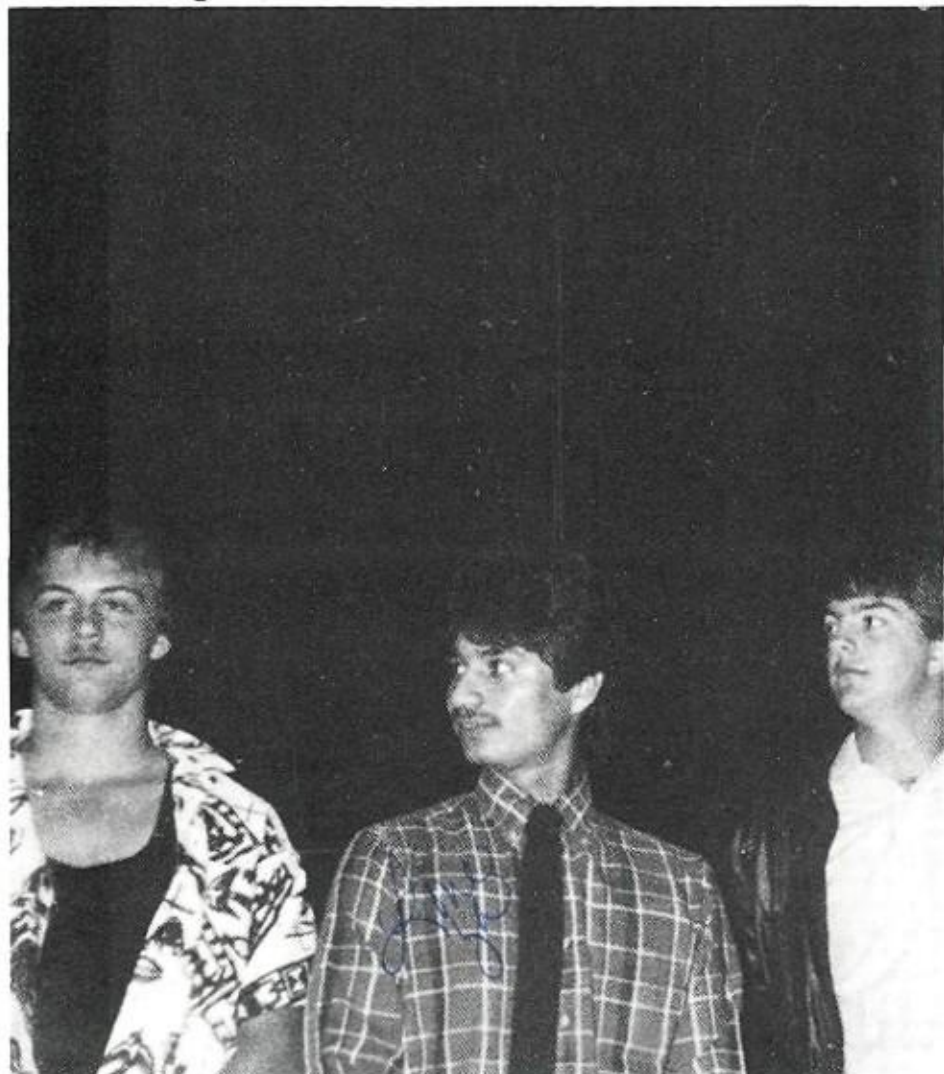

SW Athletes

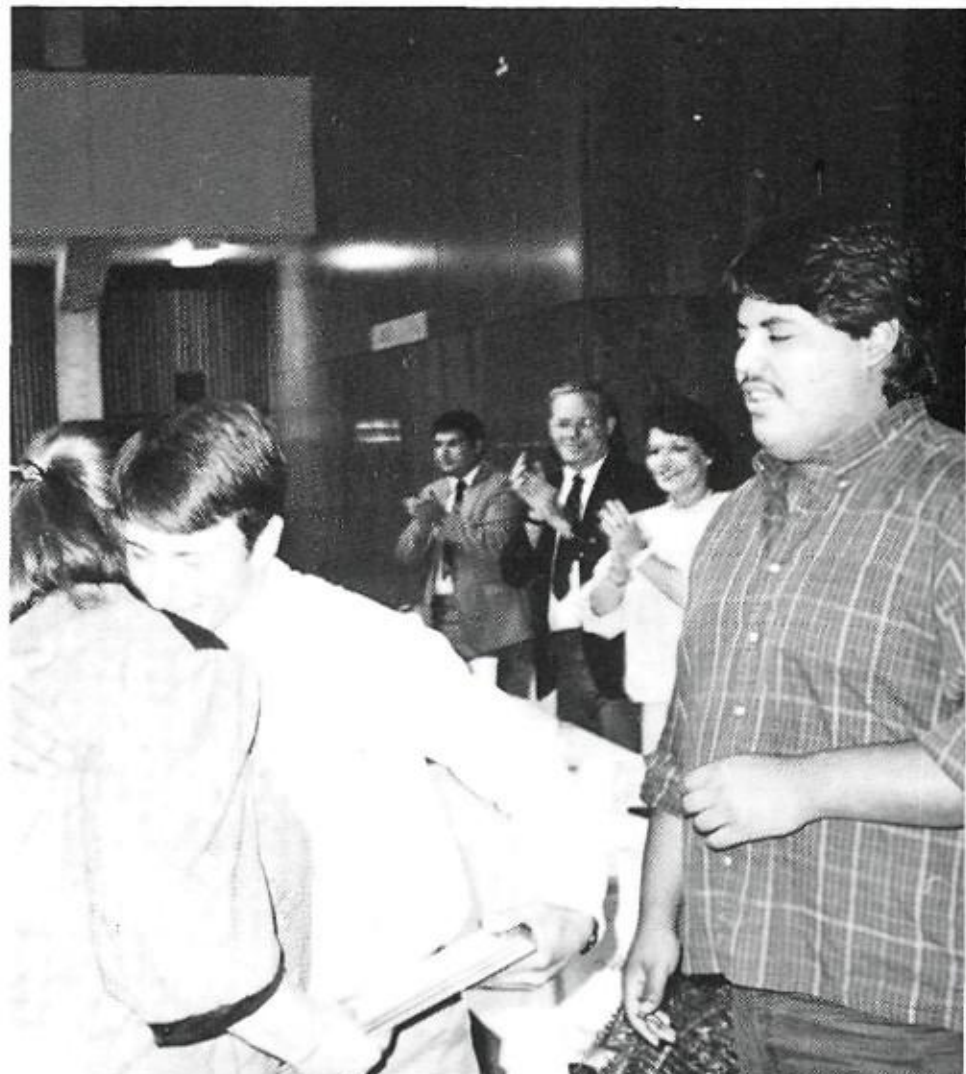

Coach Baker presents Bernadette Ray with one of her many awards for the evening.

Ty Detmer, John Bordano, and Daryl Davis listen intently as they await the next announcement.

Mario Laque, Ken Fields, and Kevin Jennings cast a side glance as coach Detmer leaves the stage.

Football players received that special hug from their "second mom," M. Lehman.

The evening of May 3, 1986 found the athletic department out in full force for the annual "all sports banquet." The purpose of the banquet was to honor outstanding Southwest athletes. Ty Detmer was selected as the "player of the year".

A large group of supporters attended the activities and the entire evening was set aside to pay honor to those students who had given so much of themselves to the school.

Ty Detmer receives "yet" another award.

Kai Umac steps forward to receive recognition as the top swimmer from coach Harris.

Dennis Ray is recognized for his position on the All State football team.

John Bordano was tapped for top honors as the schools "most valuable lineman."

Top Band Students Named . . .

Band Talent Recognized

The evening of May 16, 1986 was the time for the annual Band Awards program. Band members were recognized for their contribution to the SW music department.

A large audience composed of family and friends were on hand to congratulate those band members being honored.

"It's always a pleasure to honor our students and especially good to have such a supportive audience on hand," Mr. John Davis, SW band director said.

SW Standouts

Above: Kwang-Il In was truly the SW success story. Kay, after coming to this country only seven years earlier from Korea and speaking limited English, was named the 1986 class valedictorian.

Clockwise upper right: Michael Aguilar brought top honors to himself and the school as a National Merit finalist. Mike also distinguished himself by winning first place in state UIL math competition. Mr. Fritz Baker displays the plaque presented to him upon his retirement from the coaching ranks. Office duplication students spent much of their time at local children's hospitals in an attempt to brighten the time for patients.

SW Students Recognized . . .

The evening of May 13, 1986 found most of the SW community in attendance at the annual PTSA Awards. Students were recognized for outstanding achievement in the areas of journalism, English, foreign languages, math, science, social studies, fine arts, business, naval science and vocational areas.

Melinda Frazier carries herself with pride after winning the business award for typing.

Candice Bradly was honored as a member of the "principal's honor roll."

SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL

New Organizations Bring Honors

Two new organizations on campus brought honor to the school and the community as well. Both the newly formed SW ROTC unit and the new Dragon Fire Dance Line displayed qualities that made us all proud that they were a part of the Southwest tradition.

The National Honor Society is composed of members selected on the basis of their scholarship, service, character and leadership. This organization is geared to service to the school and community.

This year the organization sponsored their annual blood drive and through their efforts over 100 units of blood was obtained.

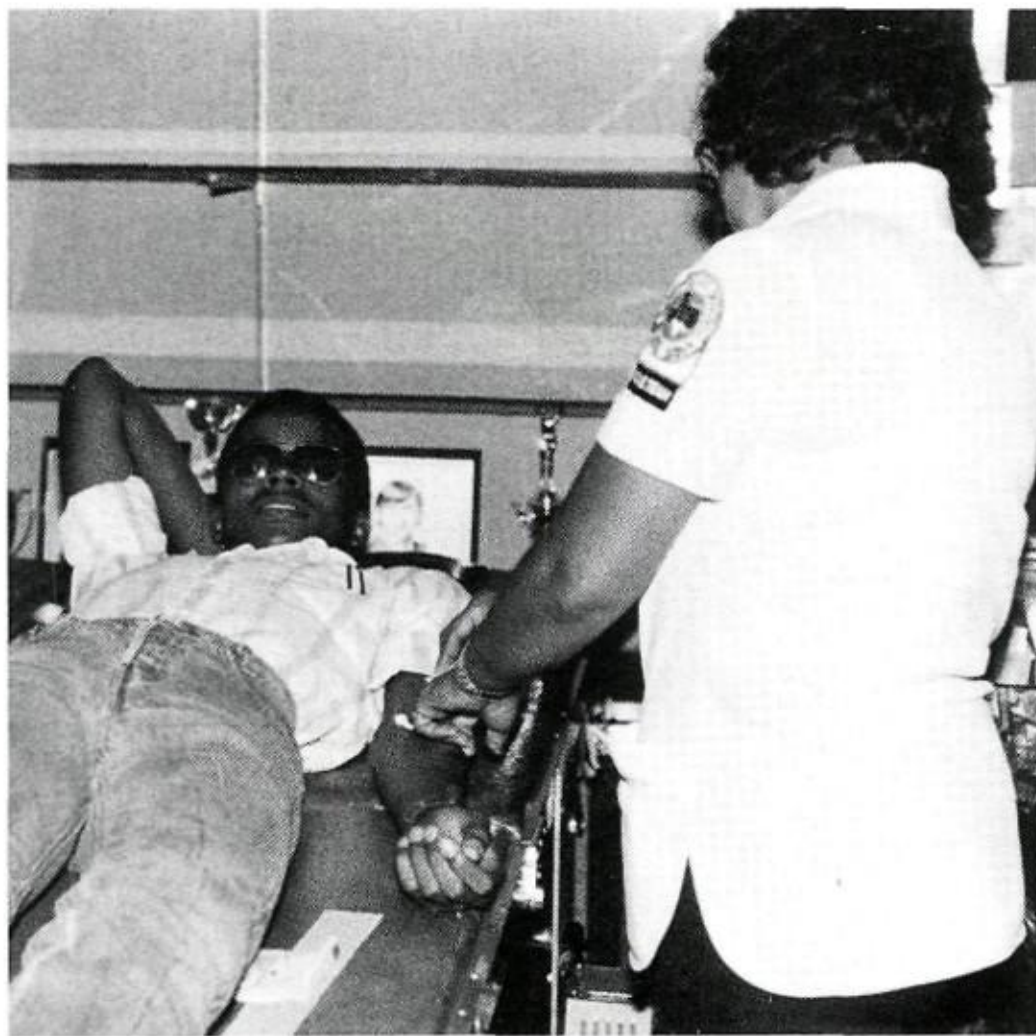

Richard Davis fills out the necessary paperwork to donate blood.

John DeLuna relaxes before he's called to donate blood for a worthy cause.

Senior members of the National Honor Society were recognized at the final meeting of the year. All of the seniors are college bound.

George Stevens bares his arm and prepares to do his duty during the blood drive.

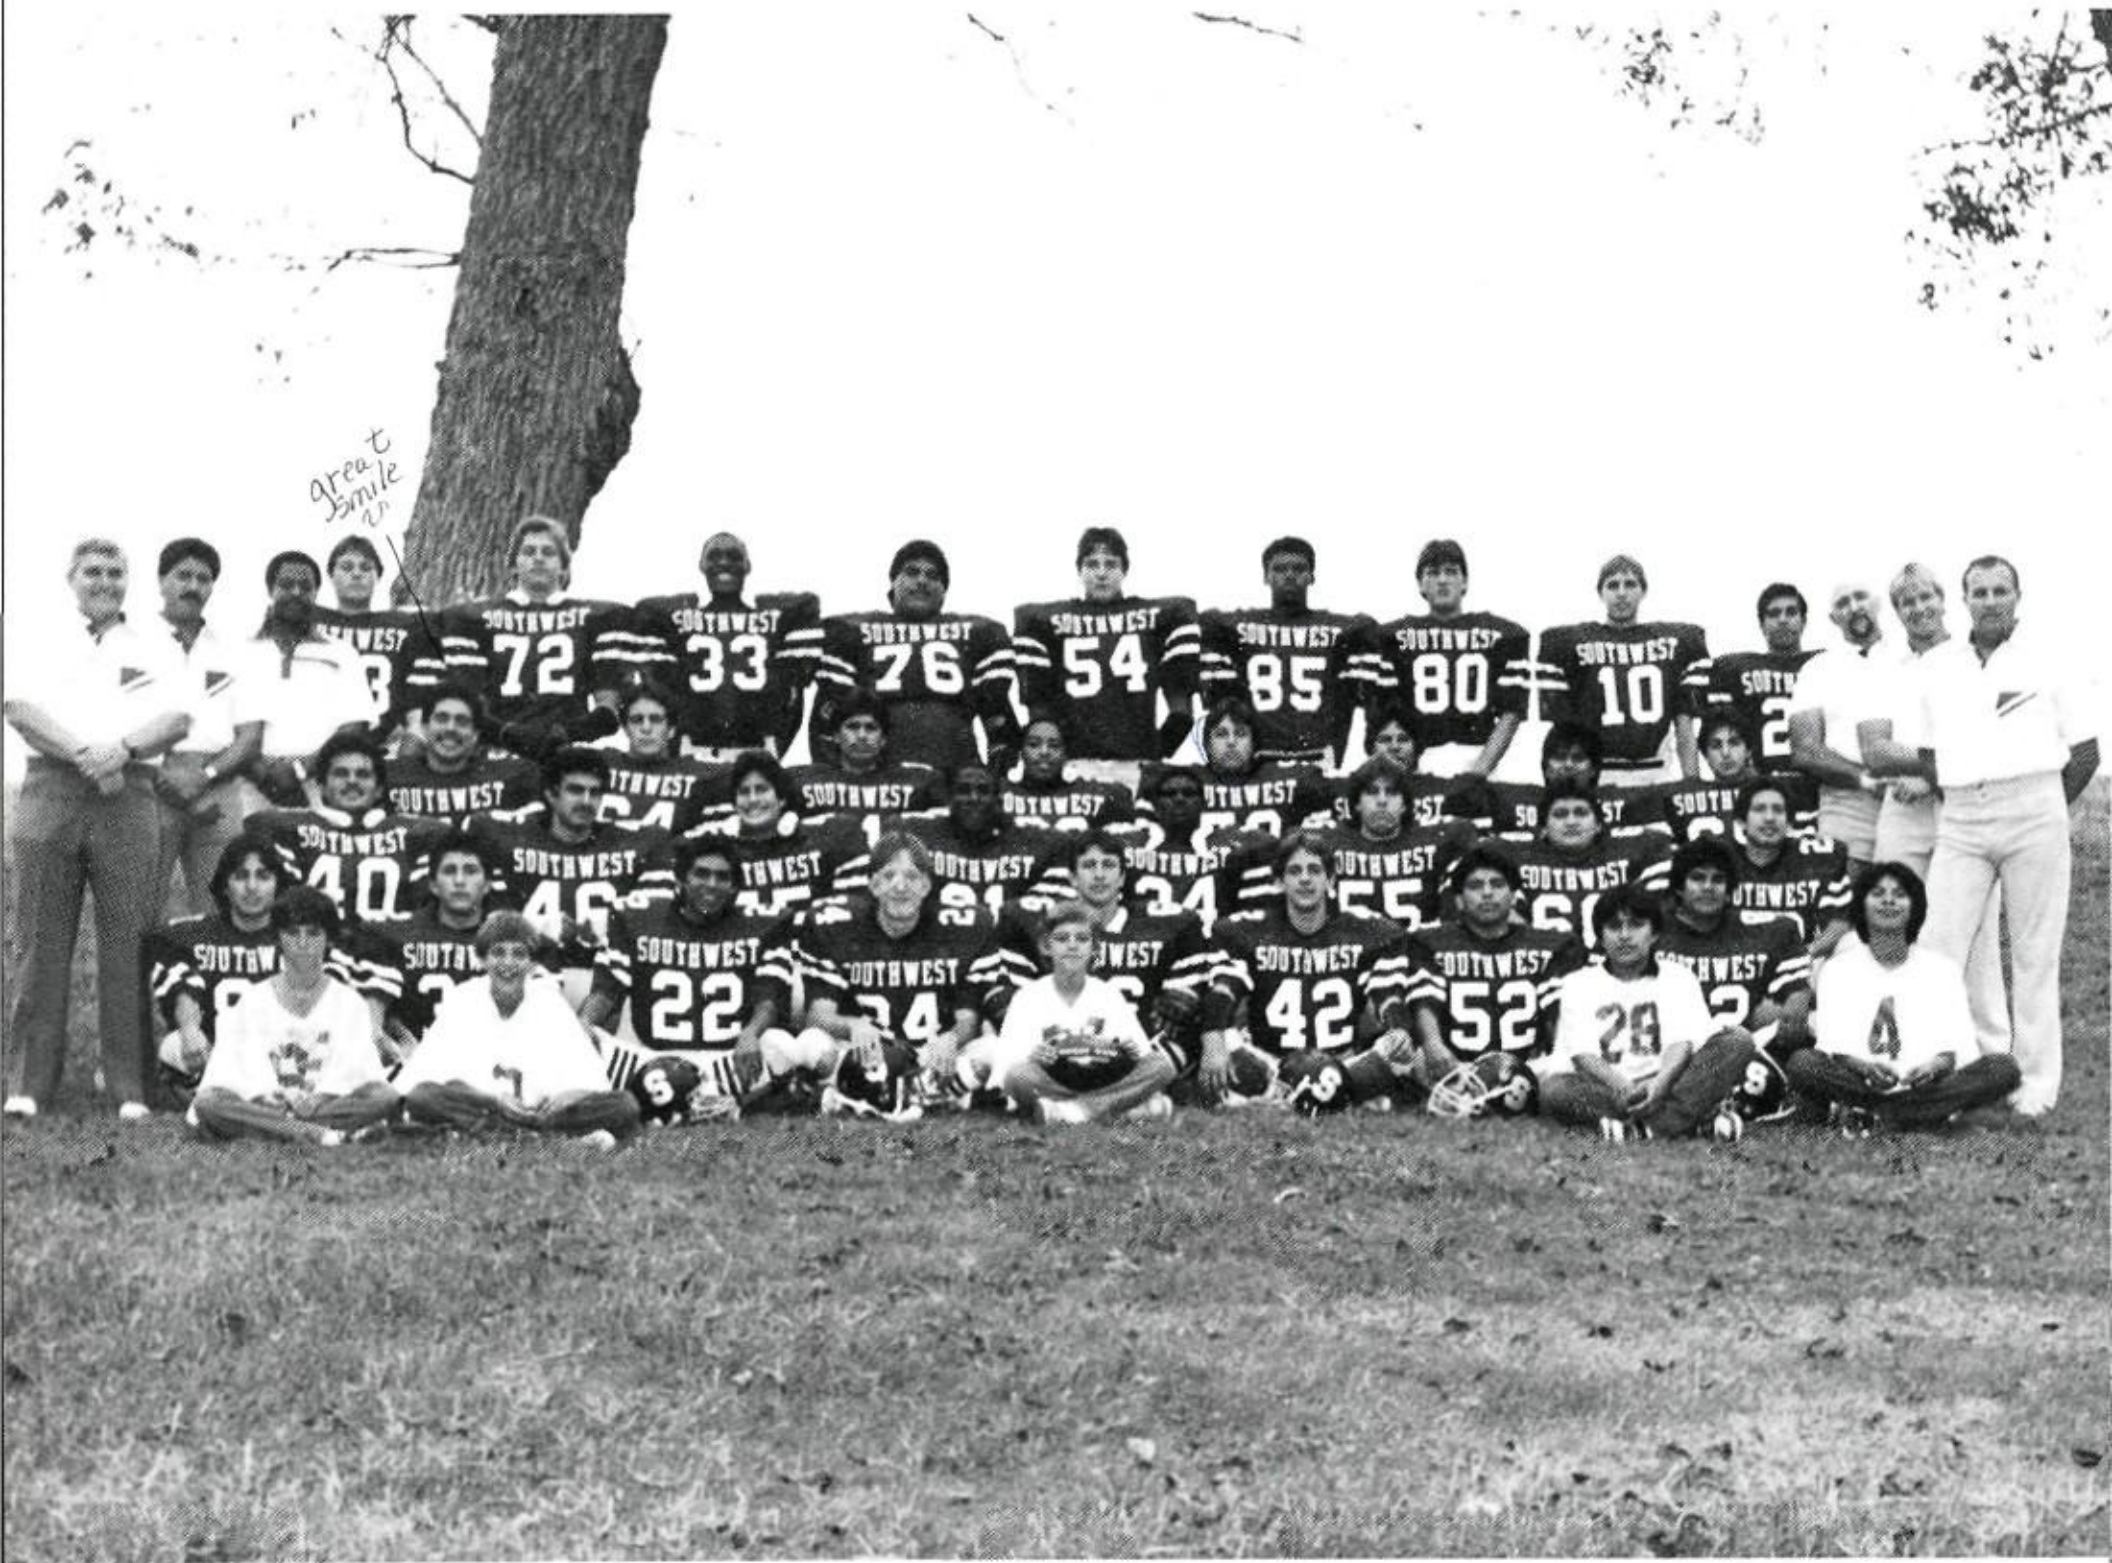

National Honor Society members were all eager to do their part.

Dragons Set New Trend

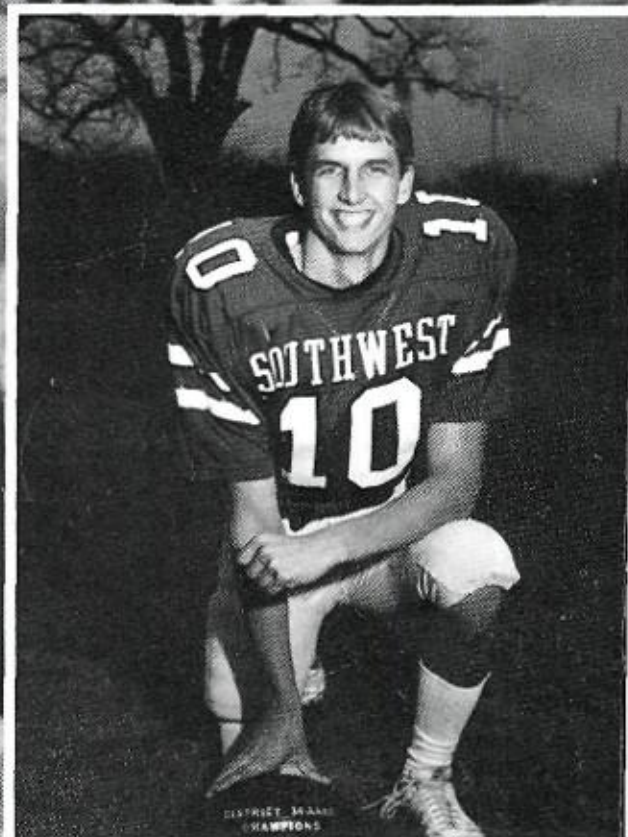

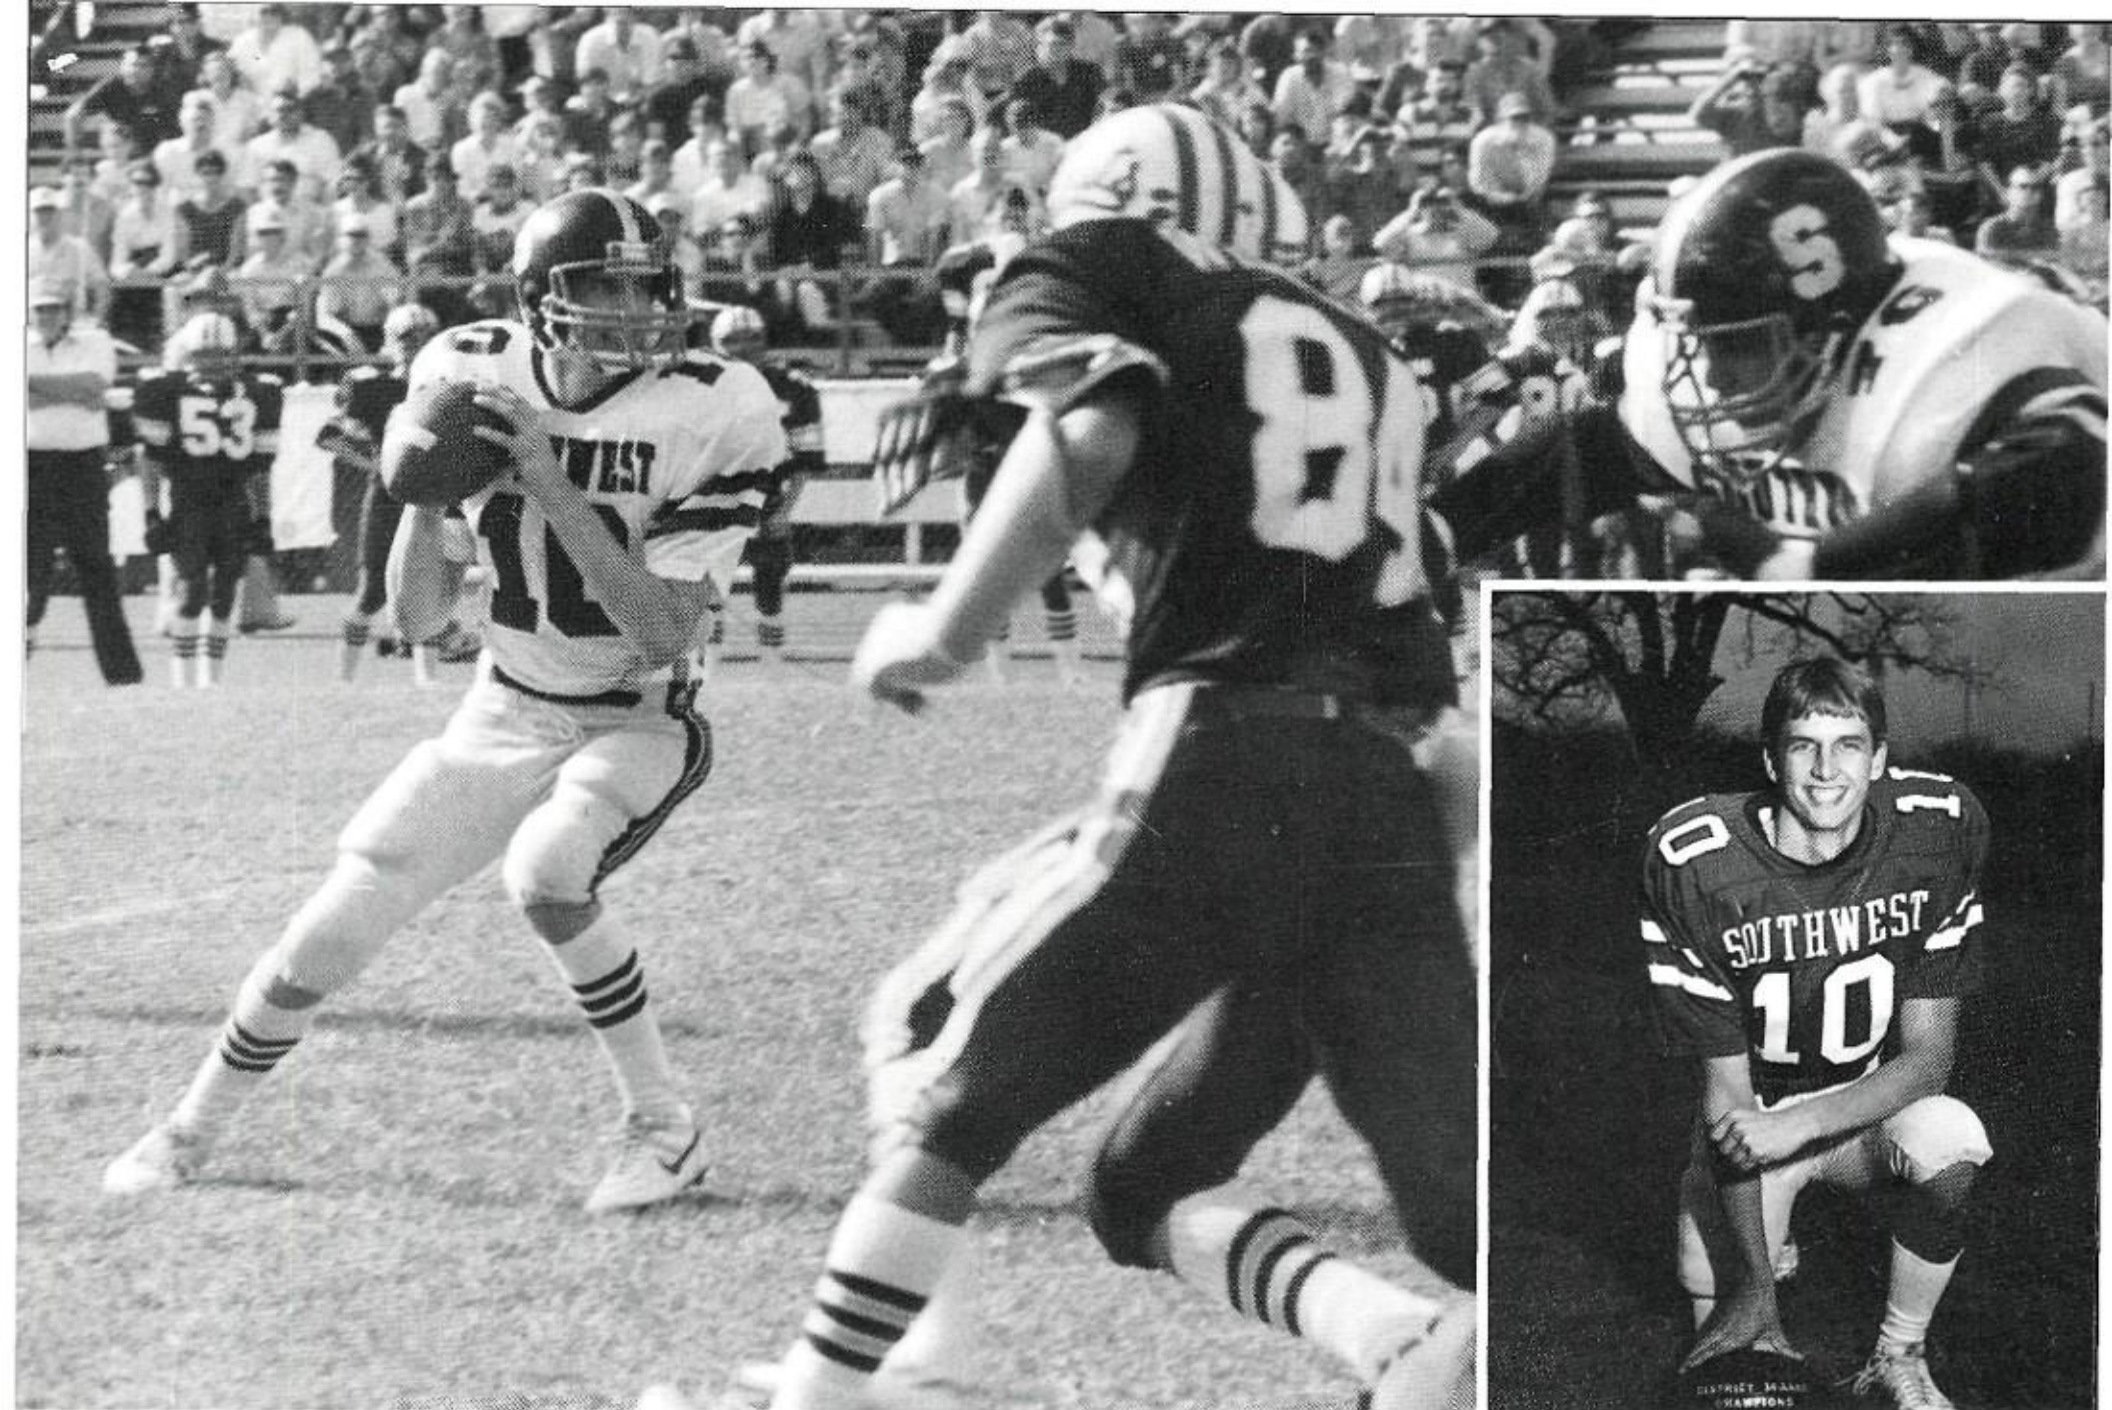

Old Records Shattered

The 85-86 varsity football team set records not previously reached in the history of the school. At the conclusion of the regular season the team had an astonishing 10-0 win-loss record.

The Dragons were north-zone champions and then advanced to the bi-district championship after defeating Carrizo Springs 51-36.

The Dragons then met the New Braunfels Canyon Cougars in bi-district competition. The team was victorious again with a score of 35-27.

Ty Detmer Sets State Records

Southwest's Ty Detmer brought recognition to the entire varsity team as well as the student body.

Even though Detmer has yet another season left, he compiled 4,600 career passing yards. This breaks the state Class 4-A total passing yardage set back in the late 1960's.

Detmer set the city single-season record of touchdowns by tossing 36 of the aerial strikes.

Striving to win!

"This was a building season and one with plenty of action," Coach Tuerk said in describing this year's girls' volleyball team.

The team had only one returning varsity player and consisted mainly of sophomore and junior players. Nevertheless the team compiled an envious win-loss record for the year with the team advancing all the way to the district play-offs.

Freshman Joann Hacker was named to the ALL DISTRICT first team. Grace Mendoza and Sherese Hall were both named to the second team.

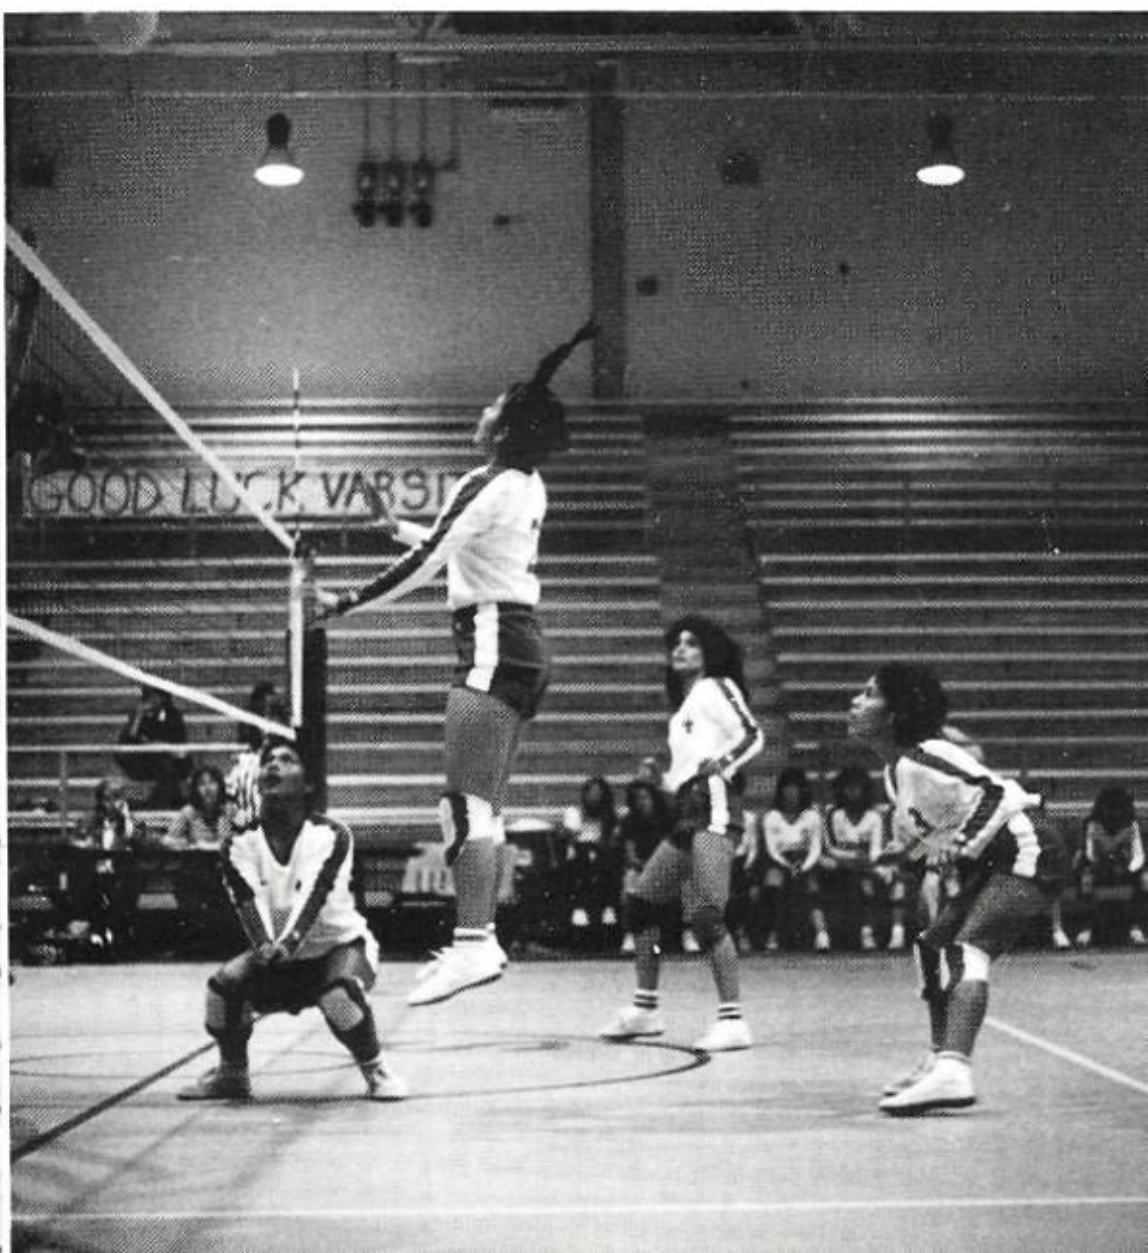

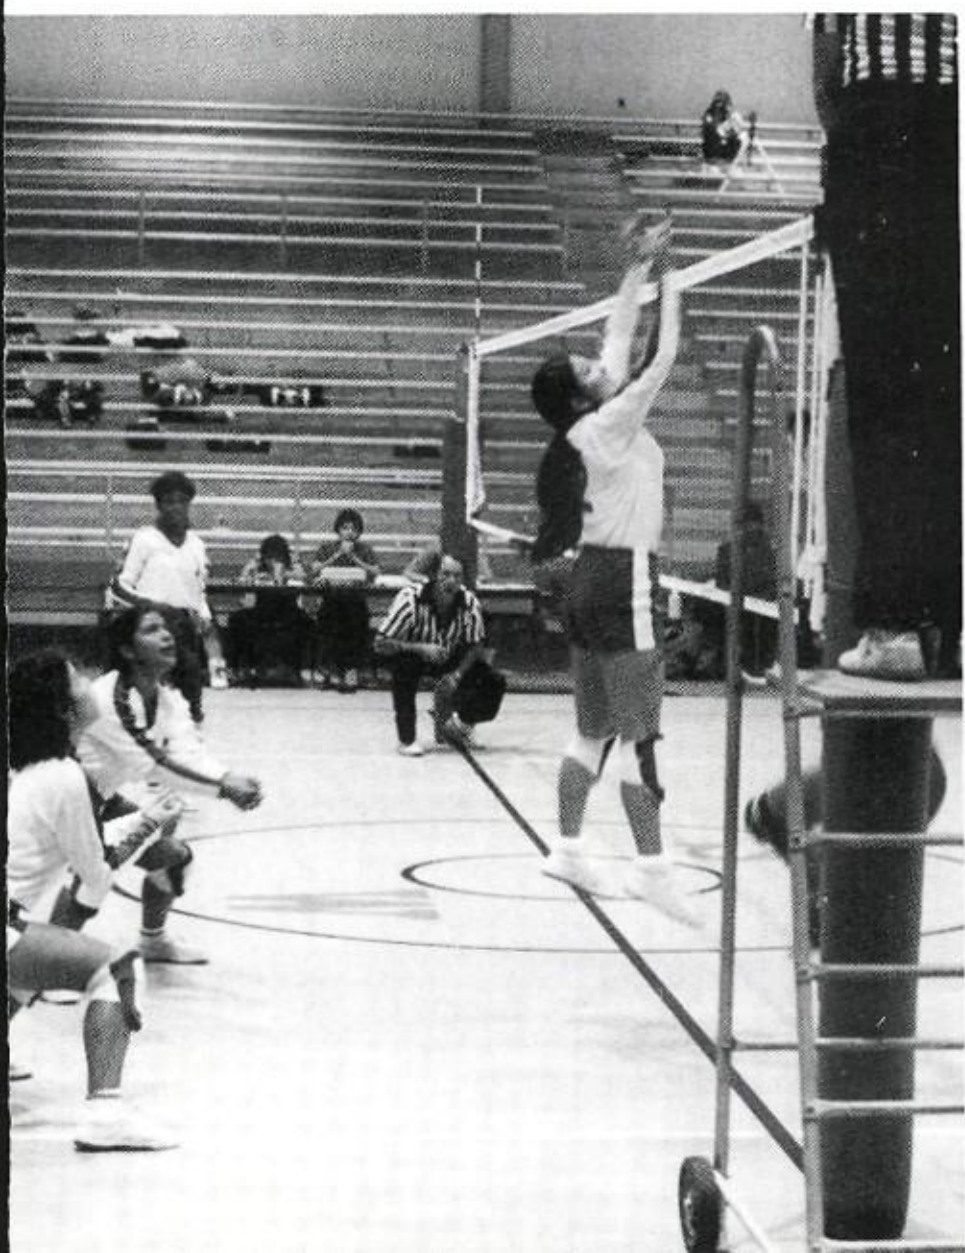

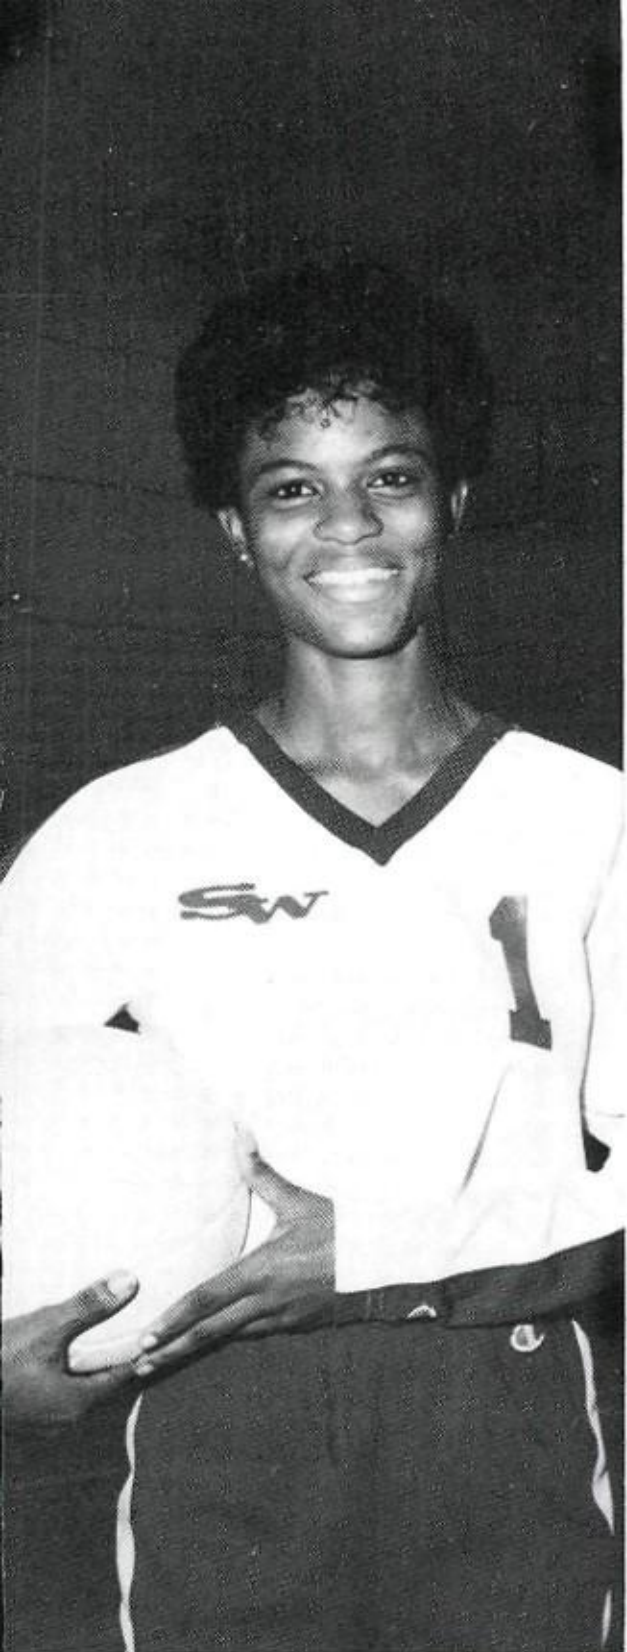

This was a young, inexperienced team, but one that made a name for itself and SW. Without question this is a group of young athletes to be watched next year.

JV Makes Winning Effort

"The team made a winning effort and was one that had a lot of class," coach Nancy Olinger said in describing this year's team. These young players adopted the motto, "It's not me, it's we." They had a winning attitude and made a name for themselves in the area.

"We were a good team," said Norma Ibarra, "Our record didn't indicate the hard work, enthusiasm, and determination throughout the season."

District Charm For Third Year.

For the third year in a row the SW girls varsity basketball team won the district championship.

Veteran coach Fritz Baker coached his team all the way against stiff competition. Baker, who announced his retirement from the coaching ranks, commented, "This year's team is one of the best I've ever coached." Team members consisted of: Cathy Hacker, Sherry Koehler, JoAnn Hacker, Bernadette Ray, Dee Detmer, Sandra Rabern, Monique Sanchez, Karen Killen, Gina Verstuyft, Misty Branam, Rachel Garza, and Sylvia Urrutia.

Baseball Team Has Frustrating Season

H.B. 72 Takes Its Toll

H.B. 72 hit all sports hard this year. But none harder than our baseball team. Five of the teams' starters were lost as a result of the bill. This made it difficult for the remaining members and their coaches. However, the team stayed with it and made a winning effort in the true SW tradition.

Southwest Speedsters

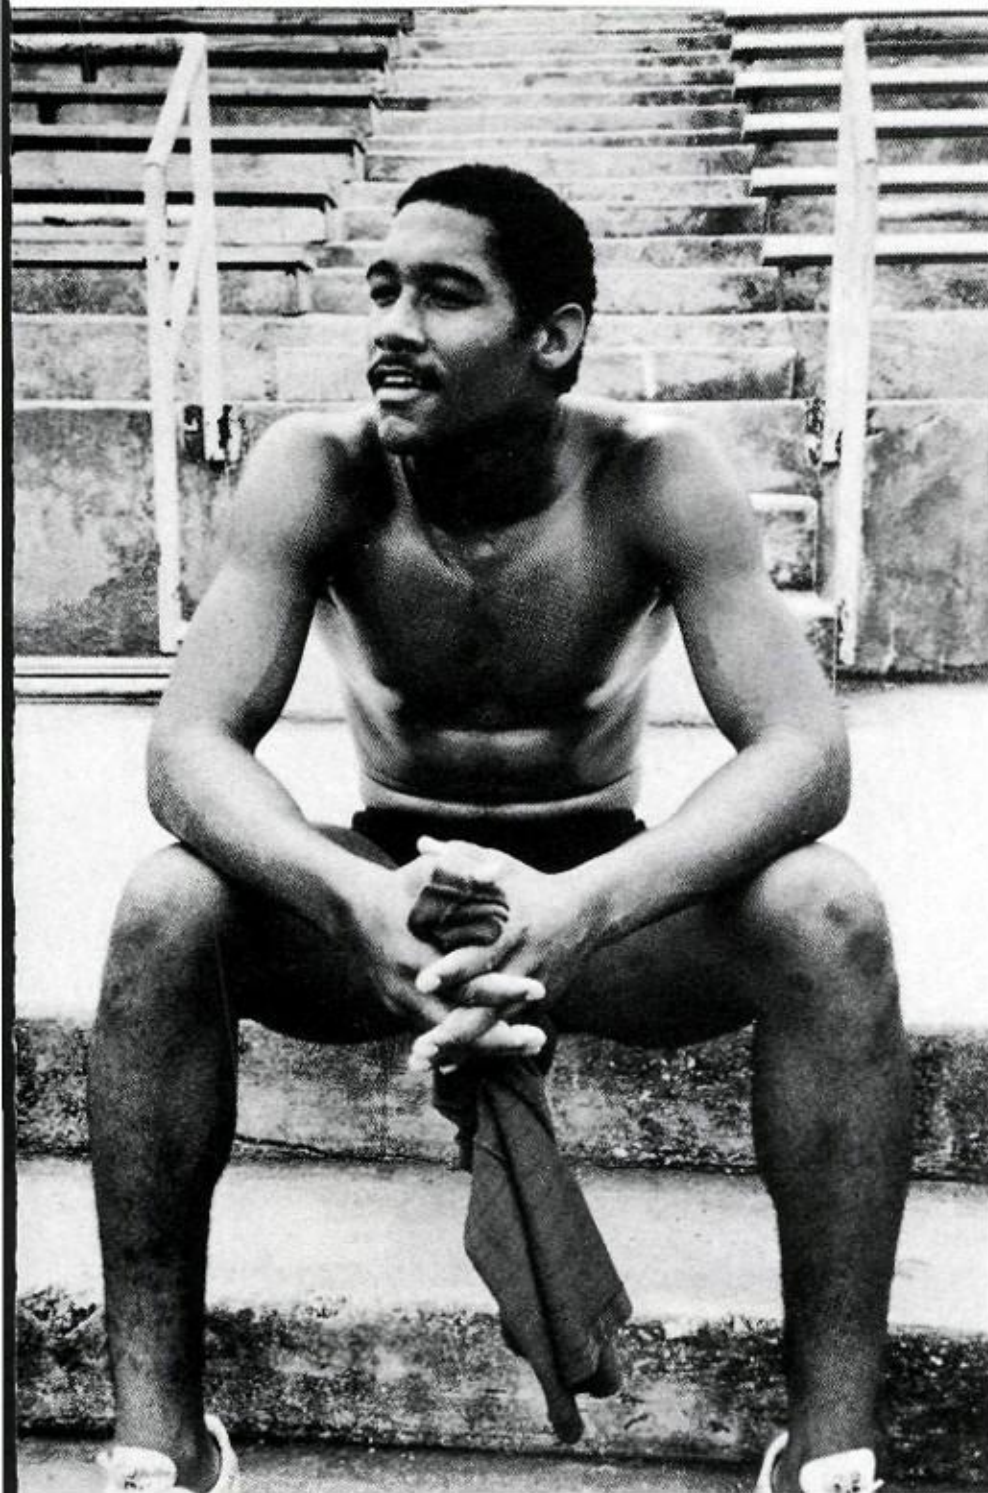

The boys track team, coached by Joe Marsh, was one of hardest working groups of athletes on campus this year. The boys could be seen hard at work on the field most afternoons.

Team members were: Kevin Jennings, Kevin Lyssy, Ty Detmer, Will Bordano, Ken Fields, John Martinez, Robert Grajeda, Jason Trevino, Robert Alvarado, James Bolster, Herman Loving, Gerardo Espinoza, Herbert Lenton. Manager: Lora Sadler. Coaches: Joe Marsh and Bill Lehman

Running To Win . . .

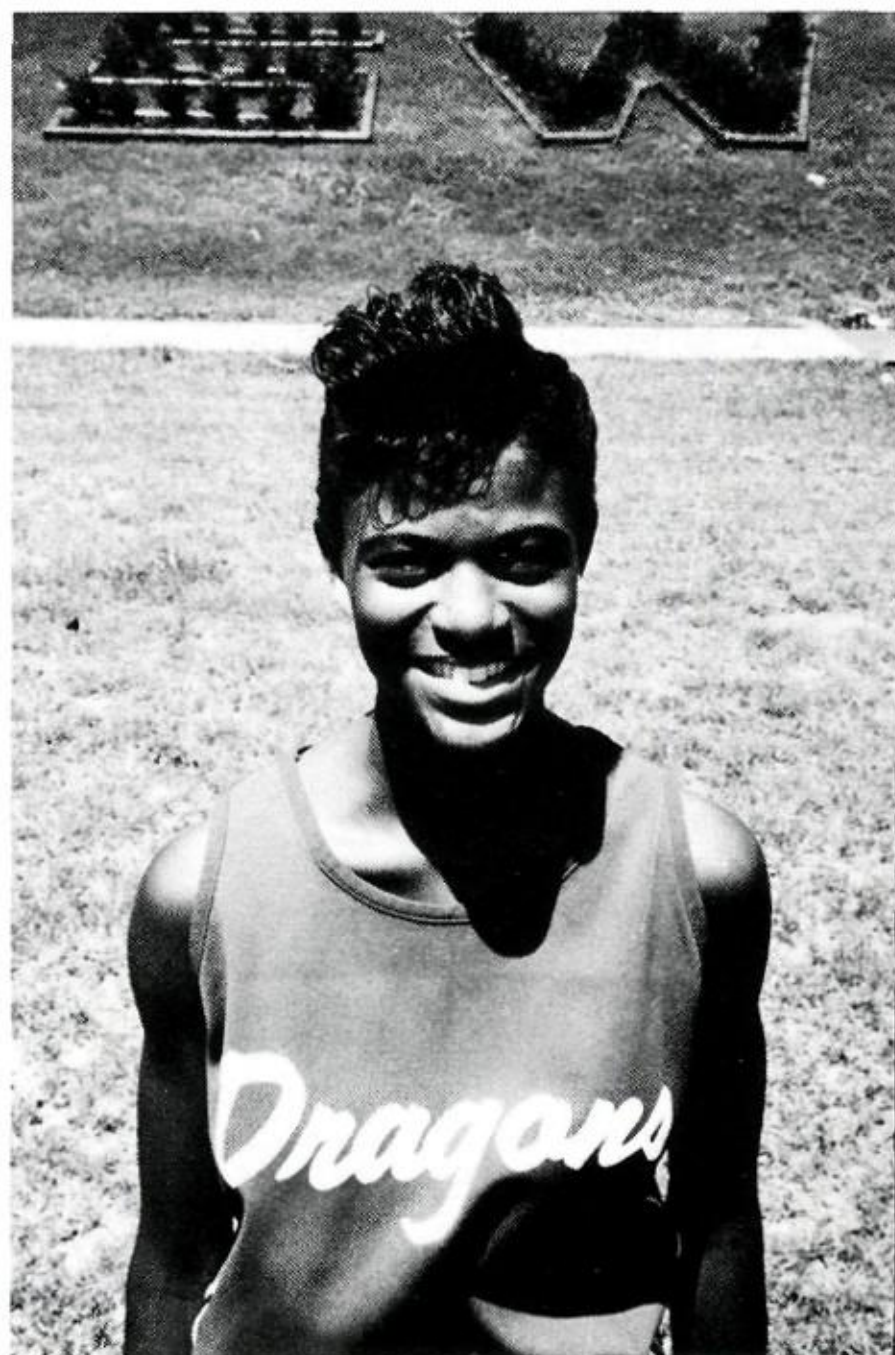

Team Makes Mark

The girls' track team, coached by E. C. Lee, truly made a name for themselves this year. Sherese Hall went all the way to state U.I.L. finals in the 200 meter run.

Team members were: Patti Torres, Nicole Kirksey, B. B. Loving, Misty Branam, Sherese Hall, Sherrie Johnson. Team manager was Gigi Lee.

The team was small in numbers but strong in spirit. "The girls were all heart and were strong competitors," coach Lee said, in summing up his feelings for the team.

Golf Team Follows Through

The SW golf team was one of the smaller sports organizations on campus this year. However, what they lacked in numbers they made up in determination and pride.

The team consisted of Kevin Lyssy, Ty Detmer, and Mike Kinney. The boys were coached by Sonny Detmer.

Varsity Tennis

The tennis team was coached by Ms. Nancy Olinger. Team members consisted of Mark Wang, Michelle Fernandez, William Moralez, Allison Herrera, Roger Rodriguez, Kirk Woods, Christina Delgado, and Michael Driesse.

Southwest's first Naval Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (NJROTC) began with a "fantastic start," according to SW Naval Science Instructor Commander Wesley M. Kramer.

SW was selected for the program as one of only four schools nationwide. The ROTC program was extremely active and received top ratings in competition around the state.

Officials from around the state attended the ROTC Activation ceremony at SW high school March 14th of this year.

CVAE Sets Winning Pace

CVAE Cooperative is a cooperative work study program. The students receive instruction in required academic courses and related vocational instruction. Southwest CVAE Coop. has been an outstanding winner in annual TEA sponsored skill contests.

German Club Gains Experience

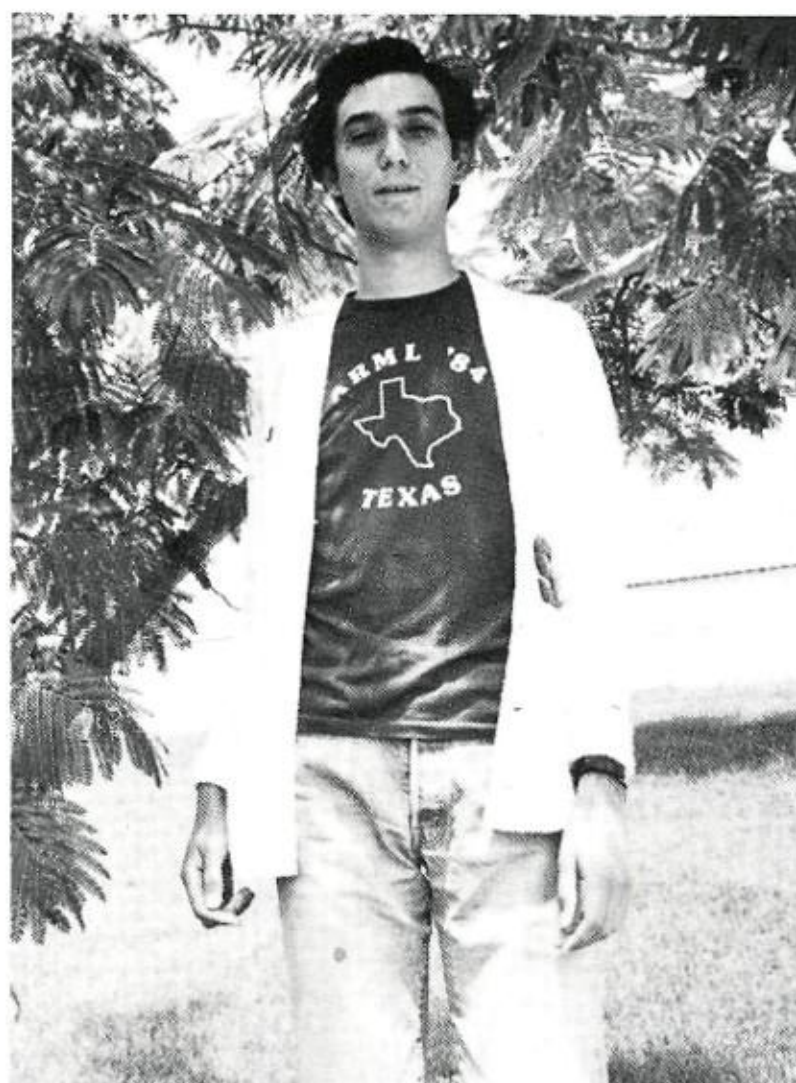

The German club members and their sponsors sought to study and experience the German culture. The group has attended the annual Wursth Fest in New Braunfels for the last five years.

The group was sponsored by long time SW teacher, Mr. Charles Johnson and Mr. Jessie Longoria. Members were: Anhhthika Phanthip, Julian Cuellar, Christy Branam, Kathy Vasquez, Carla Branam, Phatsale Phanthip, Deborah Lynn, Shawn Murphy, and Lorana Barnes.

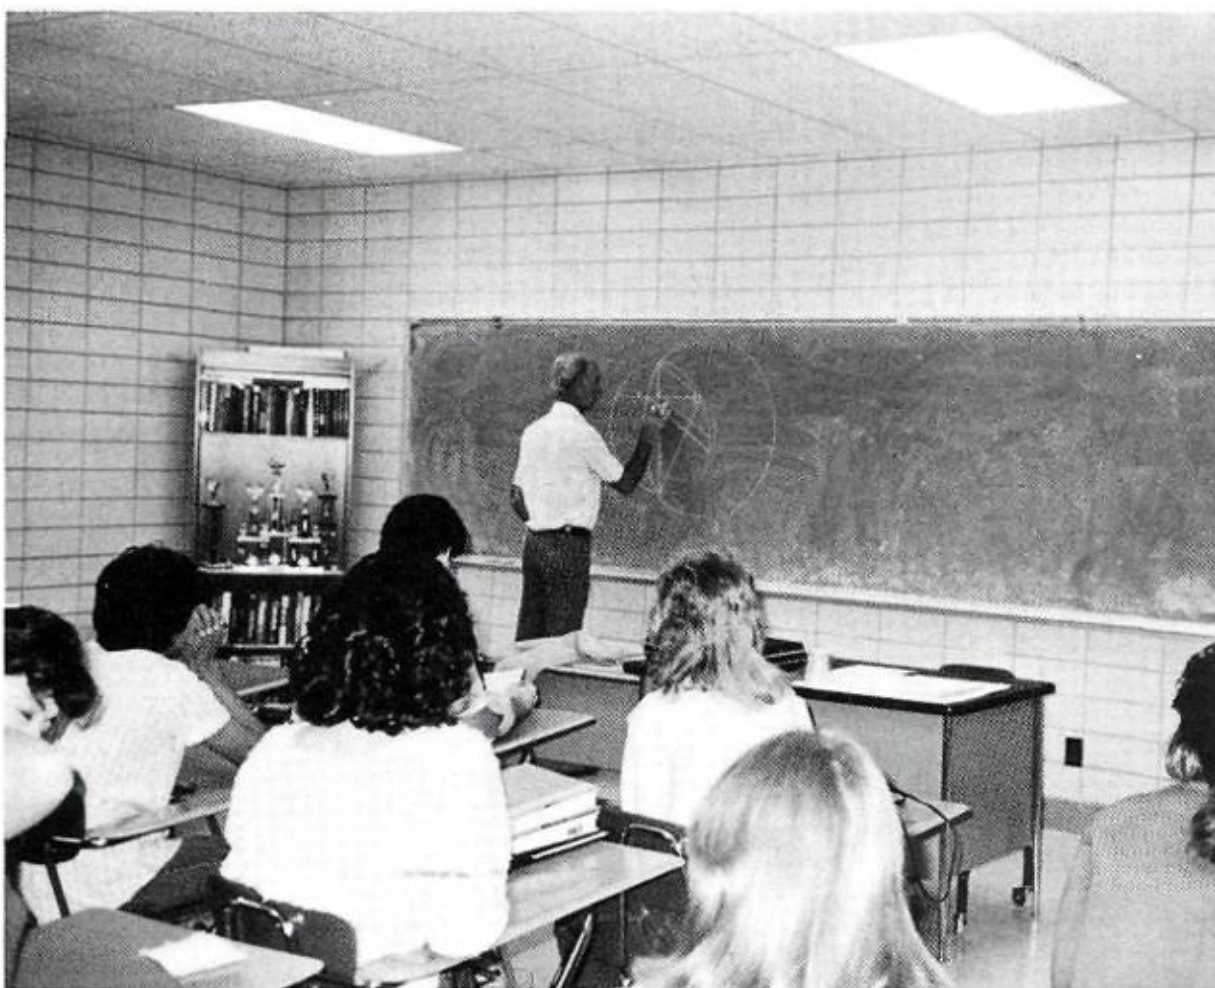

Math team members and their sponsor, Mr. Sam Baethge, relax before competing in another tournament.

Mike Aguilar was selected as the top student in number sense in U.I.L. competition.

Early morning practice sessions were common for members of the math team. Here Mr. Baethge explains one of the more complicated problems to members.

The math team had another banner year with exceptional accomplishments at a number of prestigious tournaments. Mike Aguilar brought back top state honors for the group by winning first place at U.I.L. competition in Austin, Texas. Freshman, Rafael Aries won third place at the state competition. Aries has the distinction of being the first freshman in the history of state U.I.L. competition to win such an honor.

SW can look forward to future success from math team members in the next few years.

Students Learn By Experience

Experience Counts

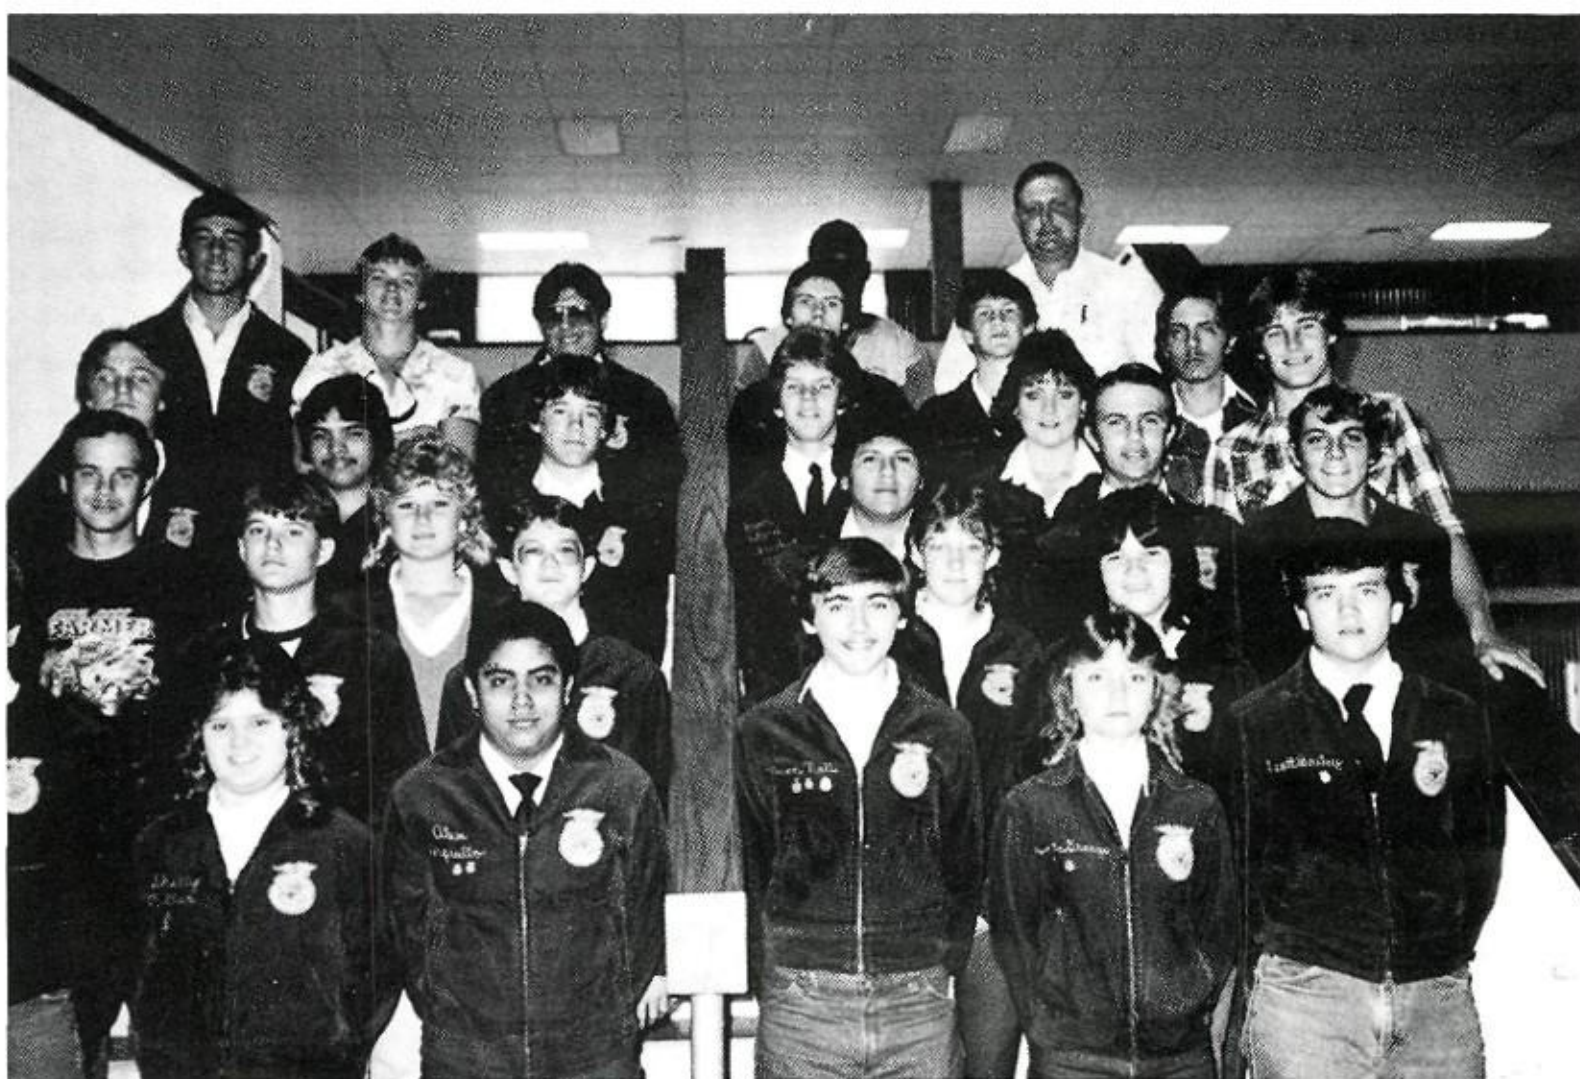

The Ag Department, under the direction of Mr. Jim Geyer, is one of the more experienced group of students on campus. "Our students get a great deal of hands on experience," Geyer said.

Sponsor Mr. Chuck Monroe flashes a smile as student council members get ready for another function.

Council members meet with Mr. Todd and Dr. Caloss to make plans for school dance.

Members move up high with school marquee.

The Student Council members, along with their outgoing sponsor, go all out every year to provide services to the SW student body. Certainly, 1986 was no exception.

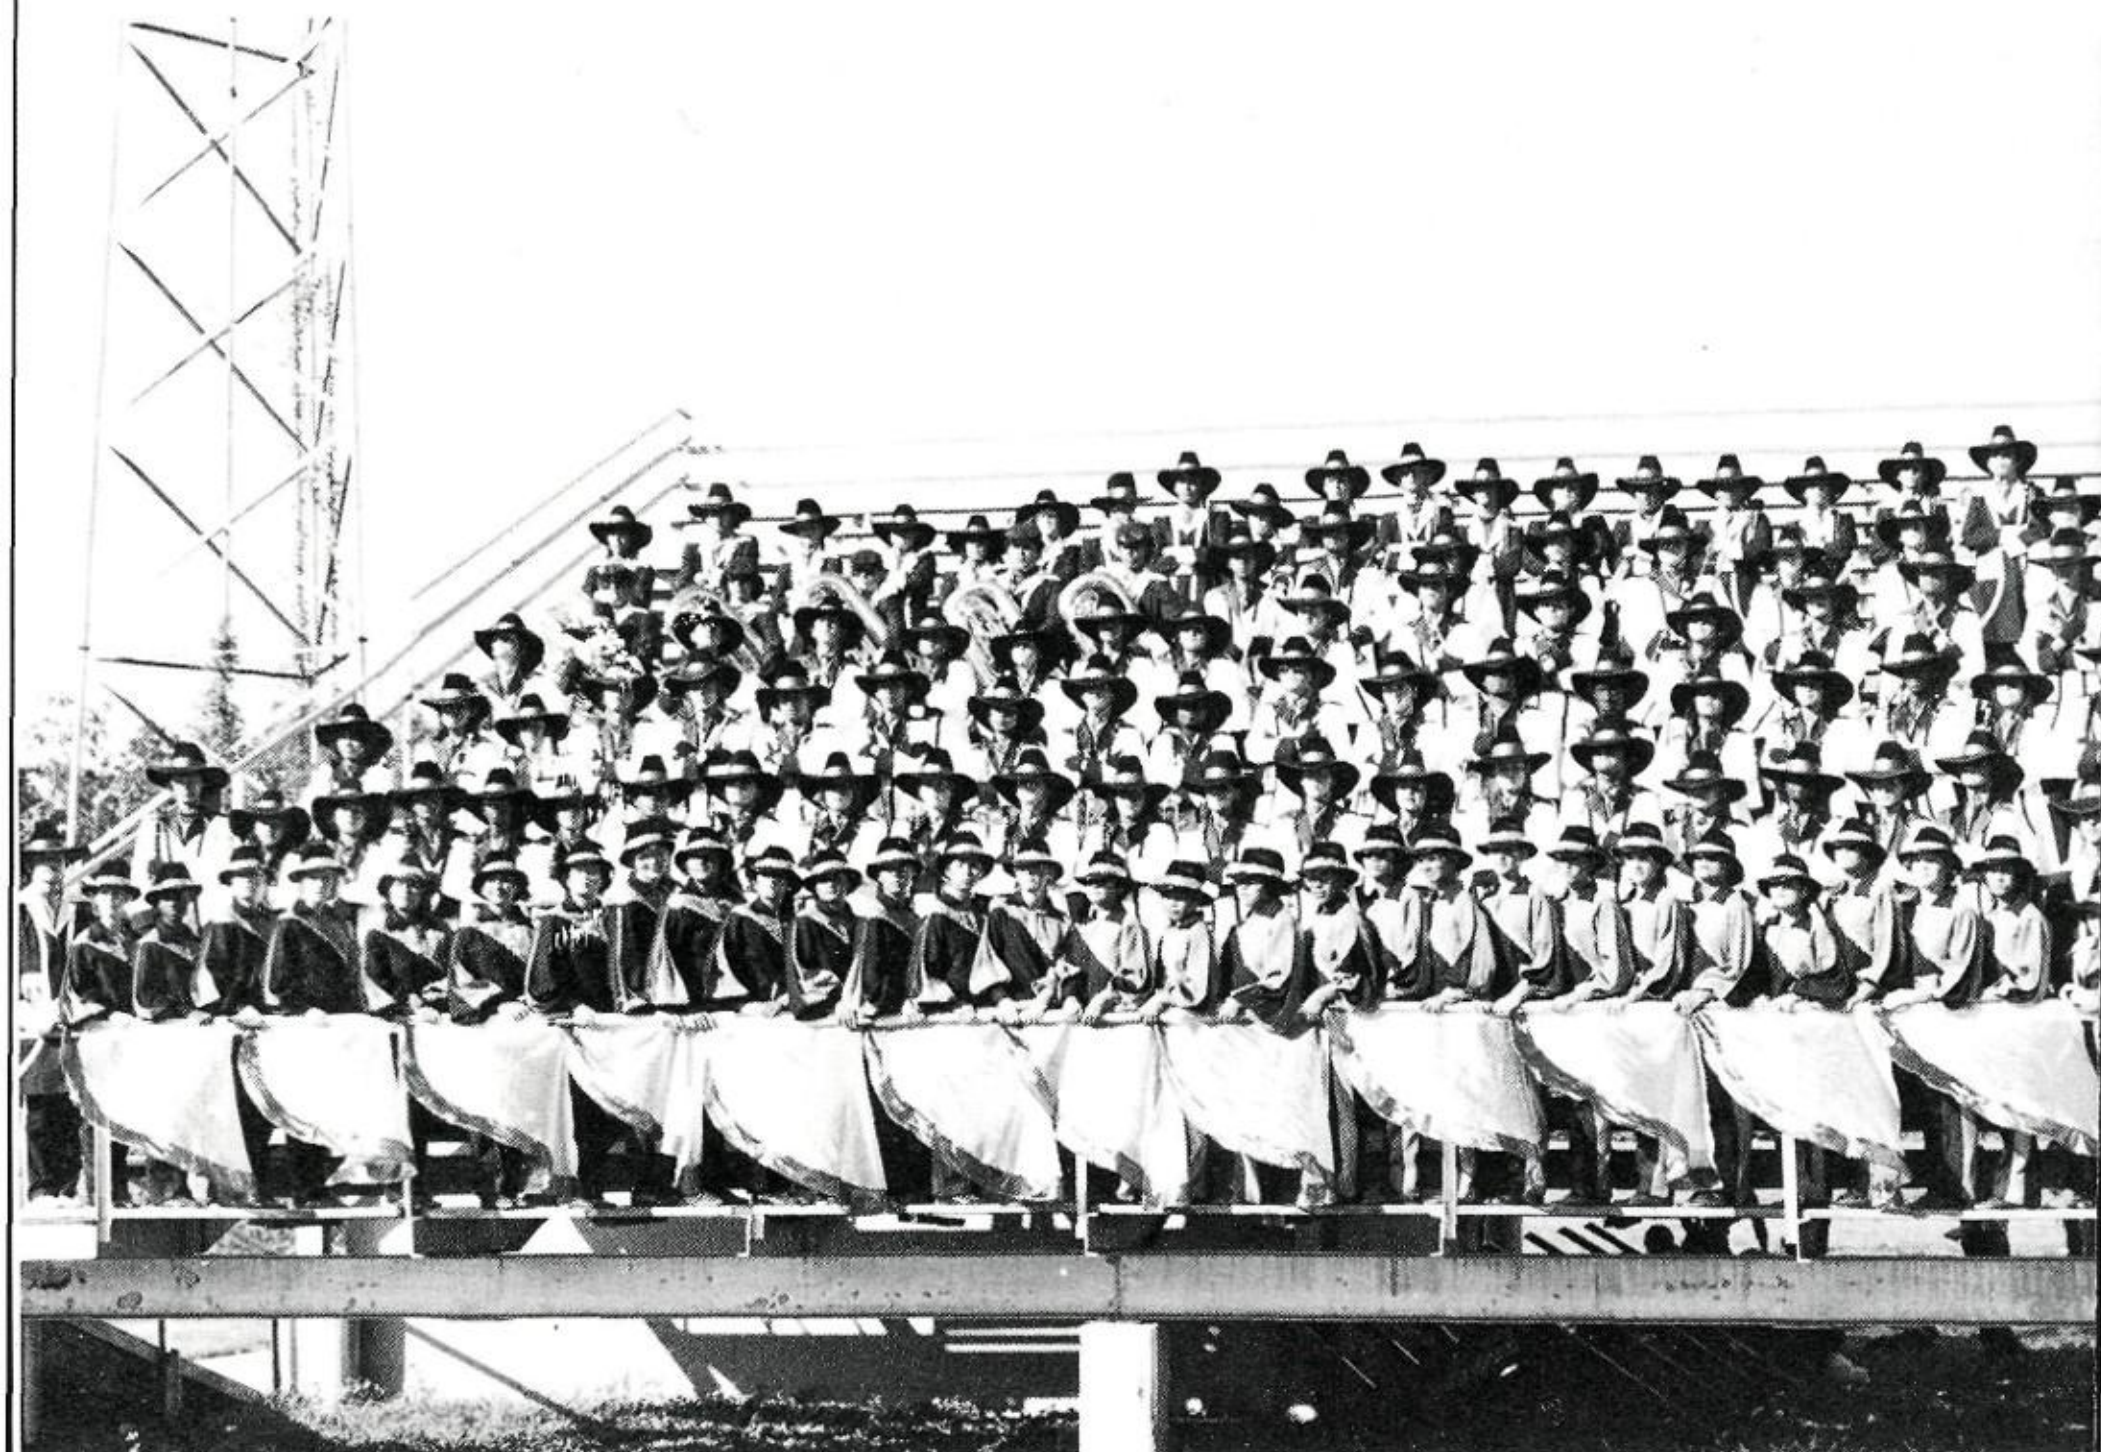

The group sponsored dances, the annual talent show, spirit week and various other activities.

Council members attended workshops around the state to assist them in better serving the student body.

"The student council can always be counted on to provide whatever service is required of them," J. L. Todd, high school principal said in describing the group.

Spirit, involvement and style . . . this is the SW student council.

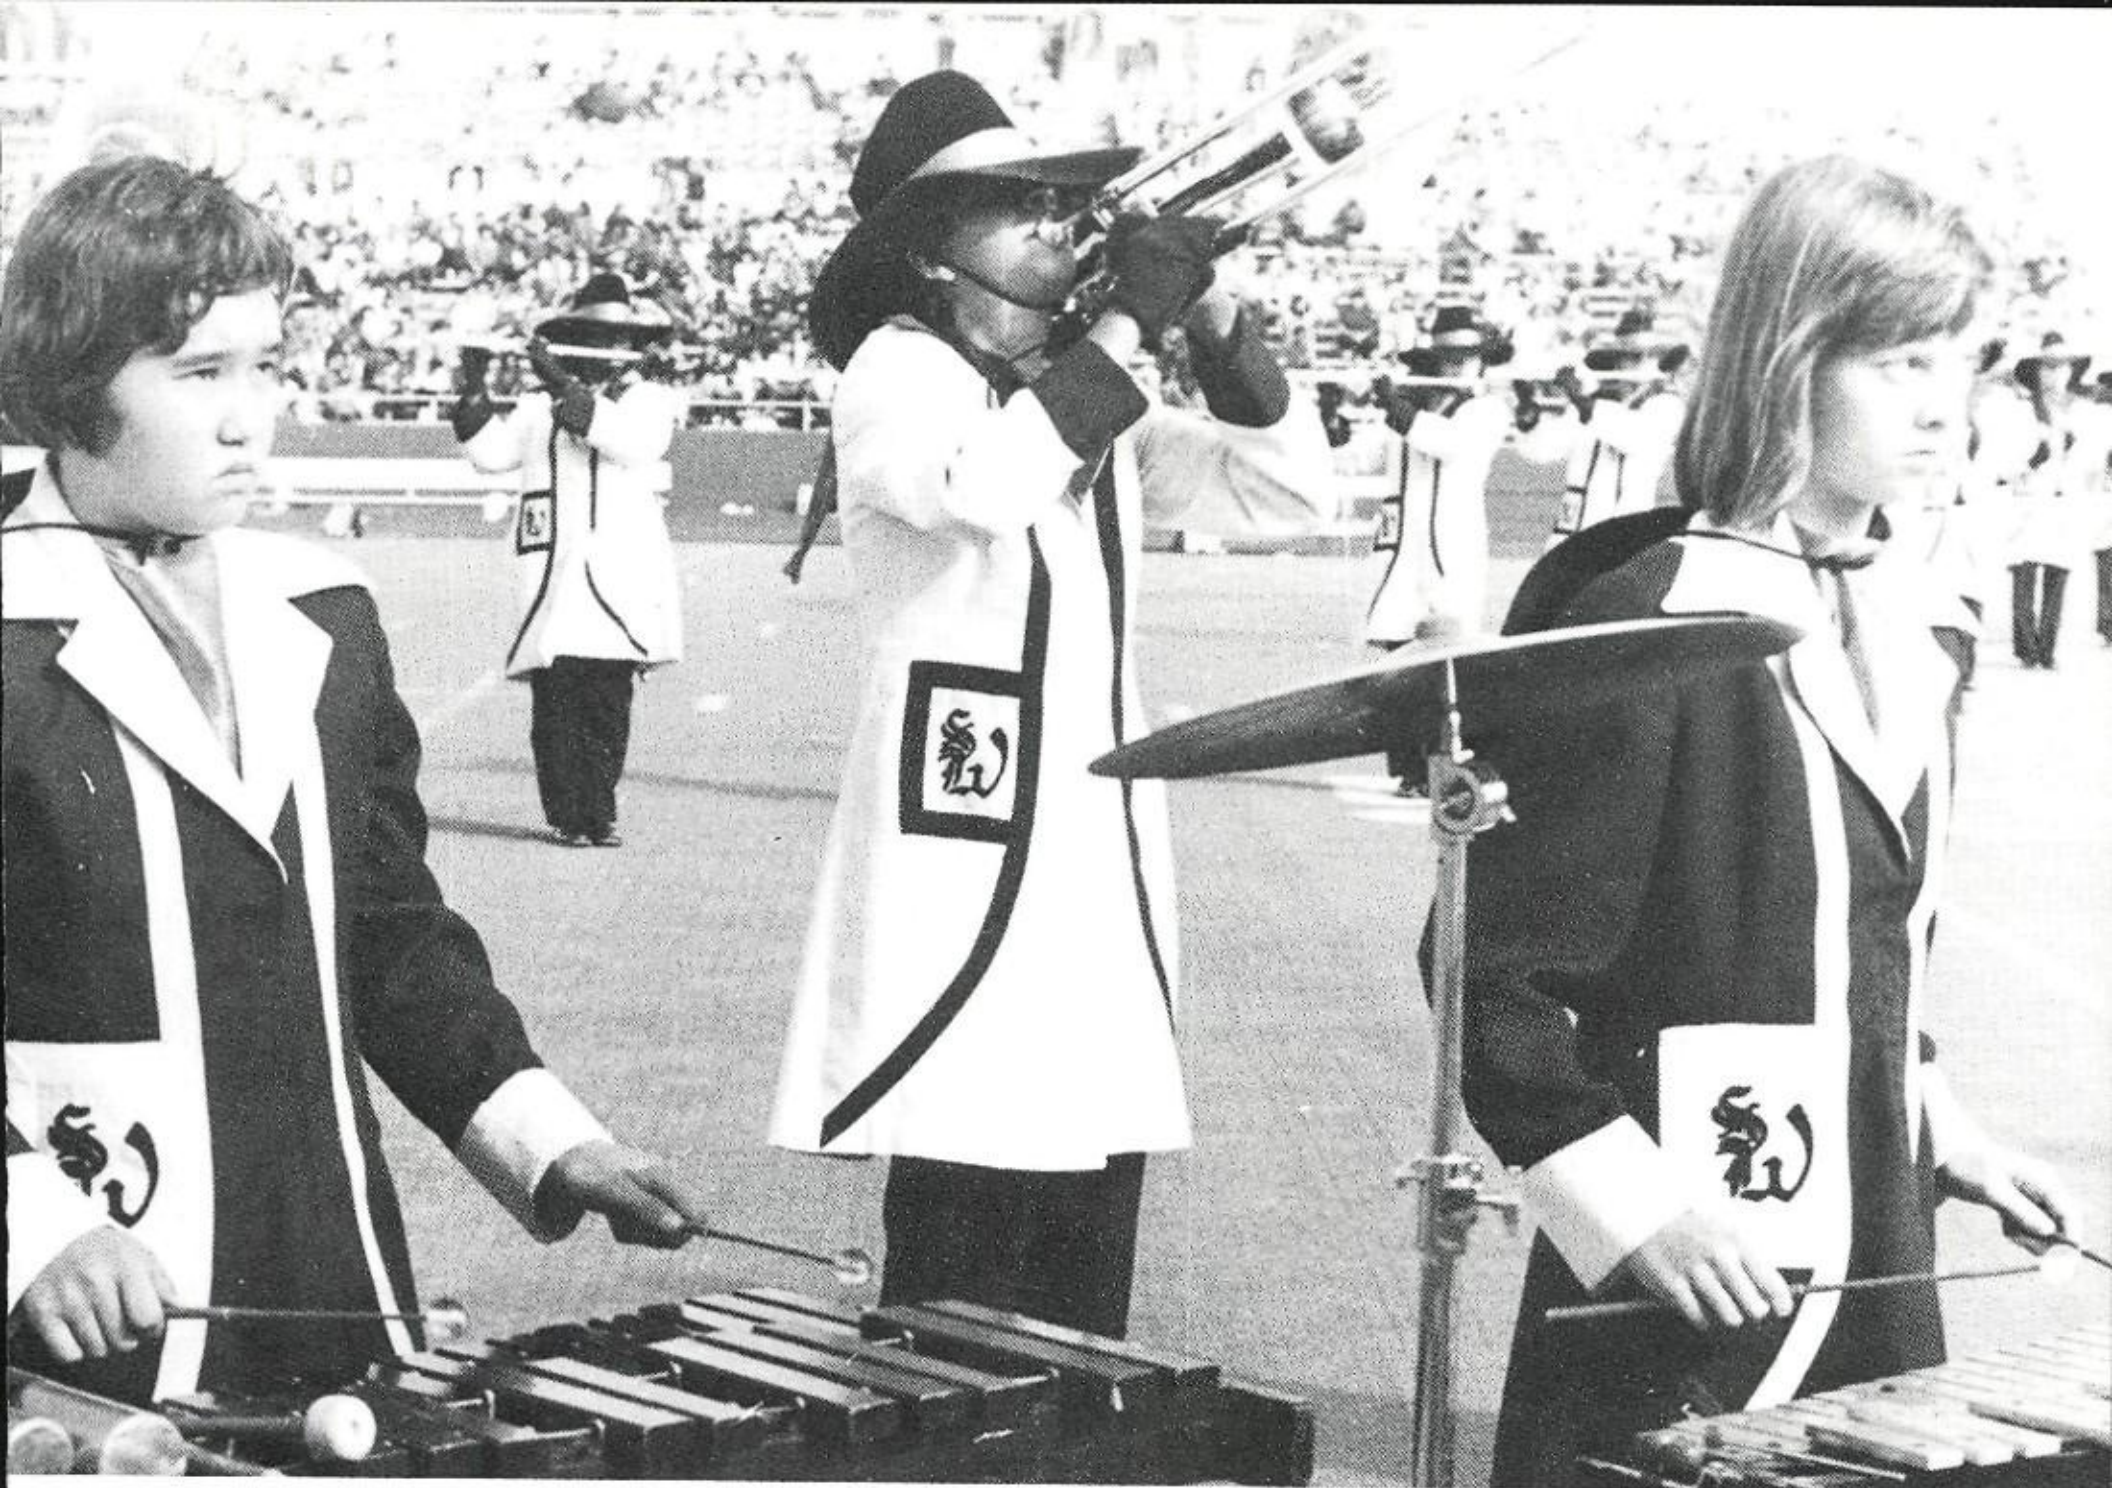

Band Steps Out In Style

"Welcome Back My Friends To The Show That Never Ends."

The Dragon Band continued with their hard earned reputation of winning and bringing home top honors. October 15th found the band at U.I.L. competition at Northside Stadium. There were over 30 bands competing. Our band was recognized as one of the top three bands in their division. Since 1979 the band has consistently received a first division rating at U.I.L. competition.

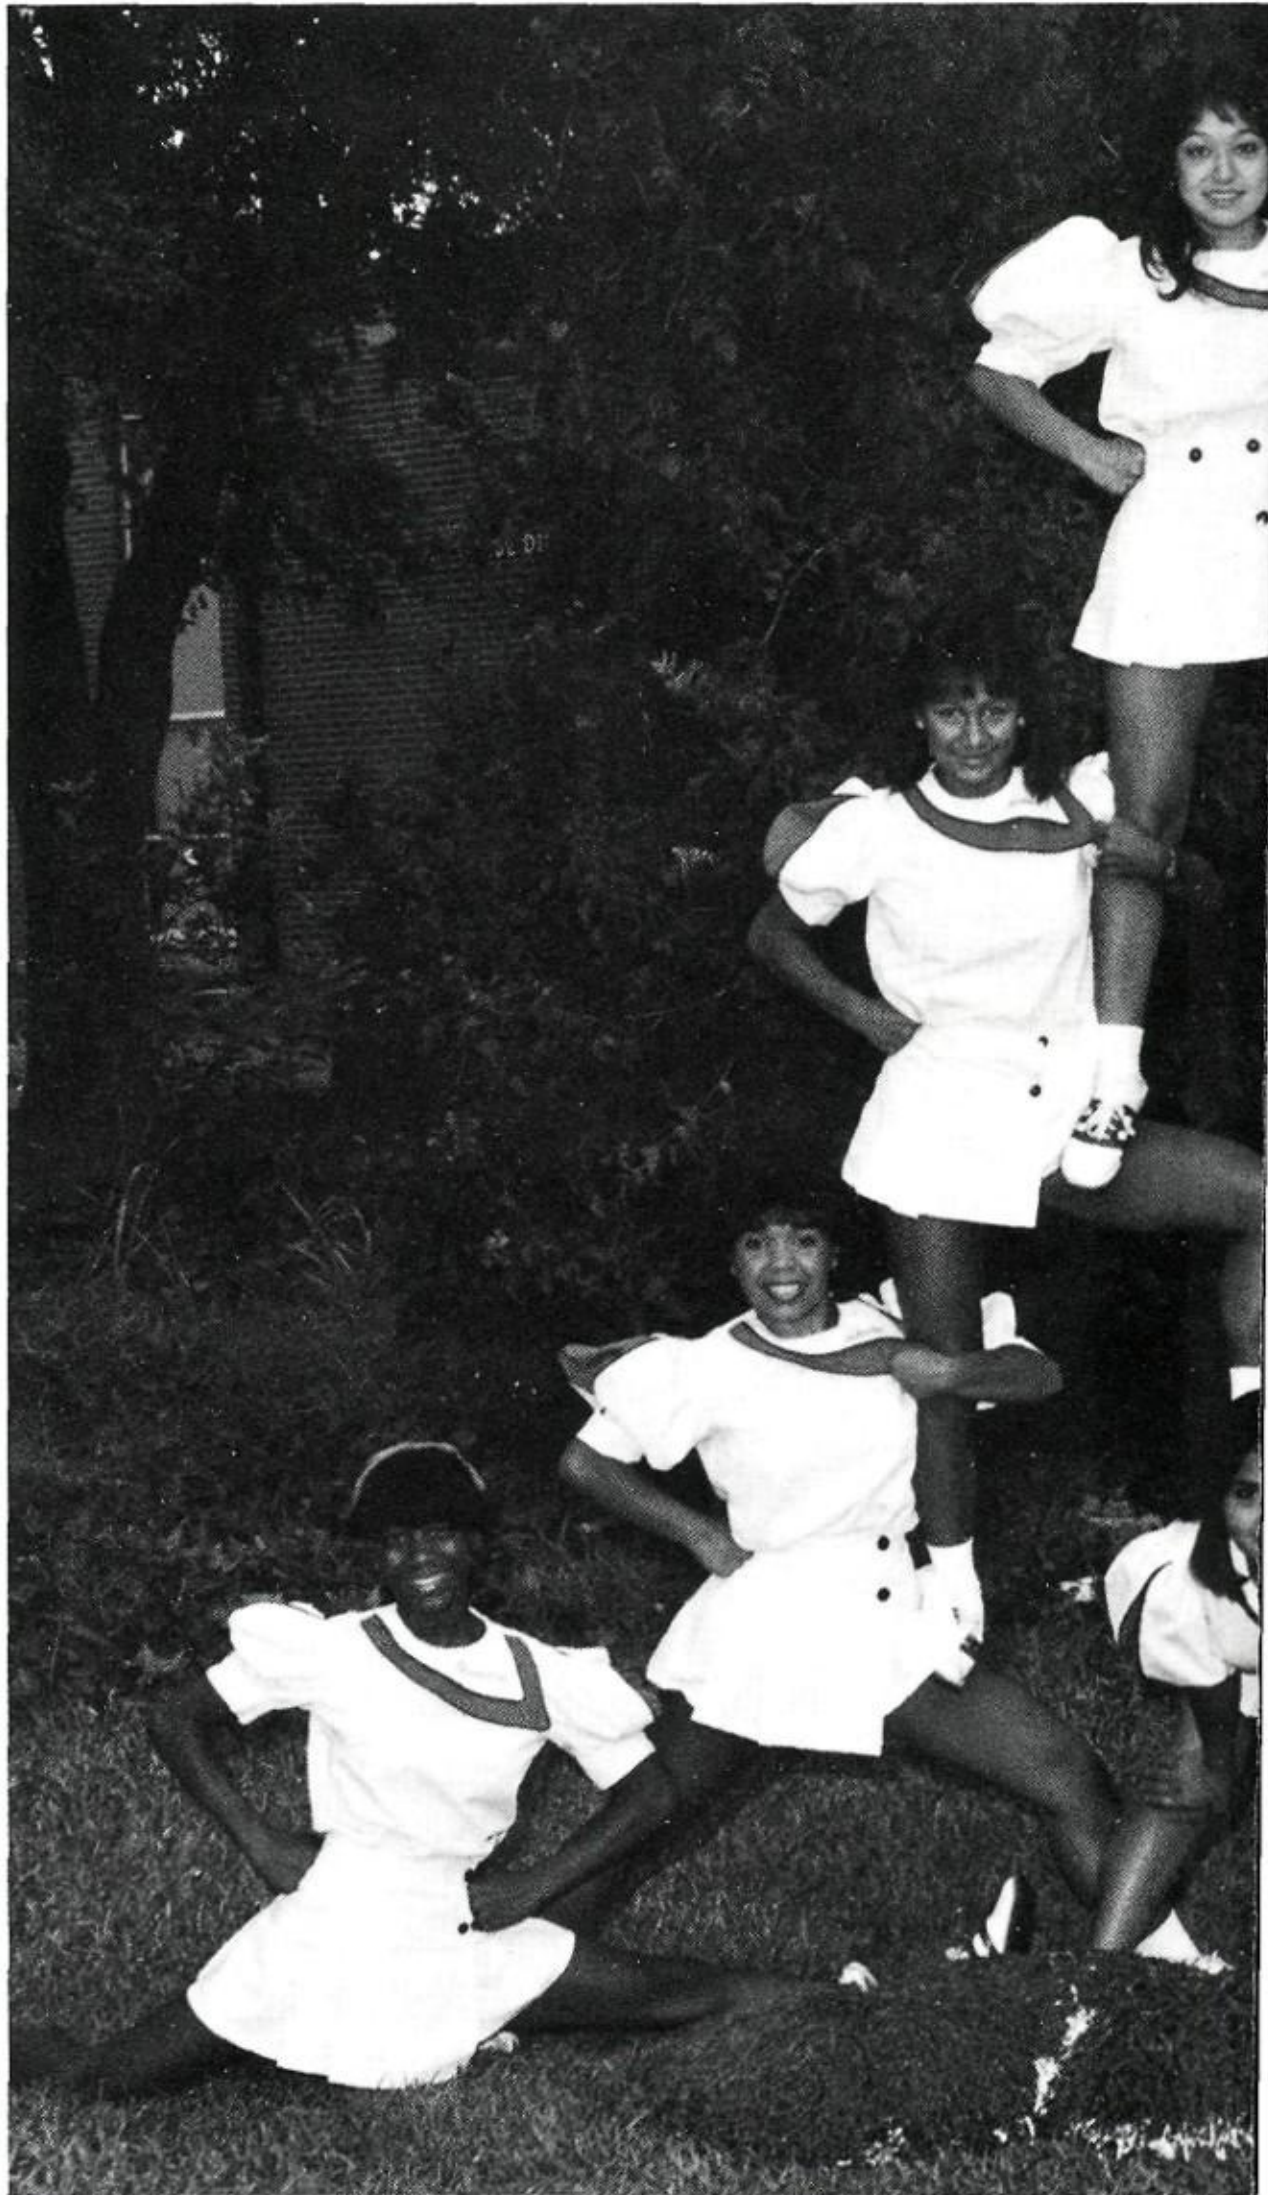

CONGRATULATIONS, on still another great year in '86.

Food Services Prepare For Future

Ms. Anna Maria Farias, Deputy Secretary of Education, awaits her turn at the luncheon catered by the Food Service Class at the Maria L. Hernandez Commemorative Ceremony.

Students Gain Experience

The Food Production Management class was one of the more productive classes found on campus this year. Aproned students could always be found mixing batter, chopping onions, slicing bread, and always very busy.

Besides cooking, the students planned meals, served them and gained practical experience in all phases of food preparation.

The class and the outgoing sponsor, Ms. Carole Moore, are both extremely popular with the entire student body.

Stepping Out In Style

A new organization that added class and style to the SW tradition. The Dragon Fire Dance Company, under the leadership of Mrs. Cathie Gilbreath, appeared at all the home football games as well as those played away from home. The community response was supportive and enthusiastic for this new program.

Members were: Laura DeValos, Monica Ramirez, Maria Gardea, Ann Marie Rendon, Maria Flores, Leah Garza, Pamela Milam, John Vinton, Melissa Stout, Martha Moreno, Lisa Esquivel, Cheri Kibbe, Debra Alden, Kathy Vasquez, and Melissa Hernandez.

To Laura: one of the best friends I have ever had...

I guess it all started in Summer School where we changed a sort of "Hi Laura blah blah" friendship into something I believe we both hold special in our hearts. I know I've told you so many times, but when certain things occur, it is then when you find out who will still be there till the very end. You are one of those few special friends. I'll always love you for that.

I can't recall any bad times that we've ever had. That's good. I hope we never do, because I know it would hurt me a lot.

Here we are though, our senior year in the shit house. I pretty much have my life set out for me, but I know you'll take your life and put it to the best that you know. I want you to be always happy, and if you know what you want, you'll achieve that.

Well, I've got to go before I write a book. Thanks for everything Laura. I love you.

Editors' Page . . .

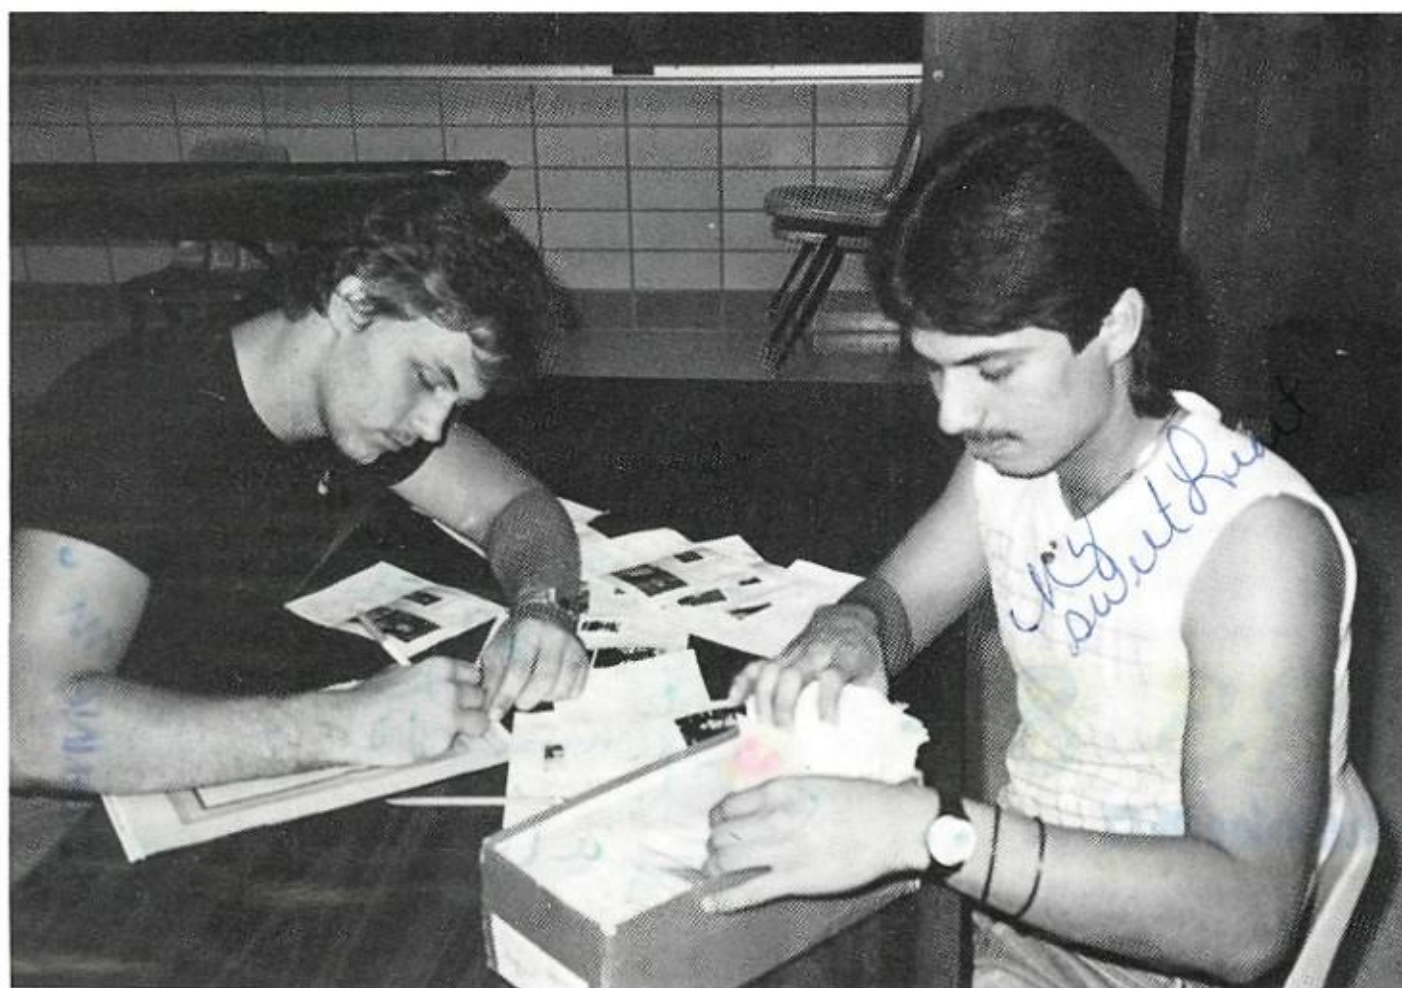

It is with a great deal of pride and pleasure that we present this 1986 yearbook to you; the students, faculty, and friends of Southwest High School.

My association with the yearbook staff and sponsor, Mr. David Laird is a memory that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. While we learned about journalism and all the things that go with it, we also learned about people and life itself.

The staff and sponsor have grown close like a family unit. It is our sincere hope that you have collected memories such as this which will remain with you for a life time.

Laura,

You are one special friend whom means a great deal to me. I know that we seldom ever talk but the times that we do, I want you to know that I'll treasure them forever. I've had some wonder times with you. Please don't ever forget Bryan Adams! I love you as a friend for what you are. (Who else would have ever gone with me.) Laura I hope we have many good times in the remaining countdown of our senior year. Everything seems to be coming by so fast. Nevertheless I want you to know that you will always have a friend in me. If you ever need anything or want someone to talk to, let me tell you, you can always count on me. I know that if I ever need someone to talk to, I can go to you. You're just an understanding and loveable person whom I will always treasure. May you accomplish all your goals in life and may happiness be wherever you are. Lord knows you deserve nothing but the best. Take Care of Yourself & Keep IN Touch!

Haura,

Howdy, how are ya? I'm going Country so I'm going to start talking like that. Ha! Ha! Seriously now, I am very glad that you and I are friends. You're a special friend. Hardly anyone else I know will get all excited with me over Bryan Adams! I feel that the thing that brought us closer together was summer school. We learned so much about each other that it is incredible! We shared so much joy and pain. But through it all we remained friends. I really consider you to be one of my greatest friends. I enjoy being with you and talking and playing around. Good luck in life and may God Bless you and watch over you.
